I. CONFERENCE ROLL AND RECORD

IMPORTANT NOTICE—In this Conference Roll and Record the following abbreviations are used; Pr. for Probationer; E. for Effective; Sn. for Supernumerary; Rt. for retired; Cred. for Admitted on Credentials.

"Non-Annuity Years" include (1) all years "On Trial" in excess of two; (2) Years Withdrawn; (3) Years Located; (4) Years Supernumerary; (5) Years Retired. In the case of Retired Members, the Non-Annuity Years are those charged at the time of retirement. To find the year of Retirement, add to the year of "Admission on Trial" the sum of the Annuity and Non-Annuity years.

"Annuity Years" are those for which annuity can be allowed by the Conference Board of Stewards. These include the years in the "Effective Relation", which is the number of years from the time of "Admission in Full" to the time of death or final retirement less any Non-Annuity Years. To this, two of the years spent "On Trial" are added to make the "Annuity Years." In the case of persons who come to our Conference by transfer, who were admitted in full in a Spring Conference, there may sometimes be allowed an extra "Annuity Year" for the extra half year. Such cases are indicated by a "over the year of admission."

Years "Preached in Other Churches" cannot be counted as "Annuity Years," although due consideration will be given this fact by the Board in the administering of the Necessitous Funds.

Every member of the Conference is urged to examine his record, and should there be any error, write the Secretary.

Resolutions

Concerning the Public Educational Collections for West Virginia Wesleyan College

WHEREAS: West Virginia Wesleyan College is the creation of the West Virginia Annual Conference, is under the control of the Conference through the election of the Board of Trustees, and must stand or fall at the will of the Conference;

WHEREAS: We believe this institution is indispensable to the Conference in her task of helping to build the Kingdom of God in the State of West Virginia and, therefore, deserving of generous support from each charge in the Conference; and

WHEREAS: In the Conference Year of 1930-31 this institution received only $951.00 from the Conference Collections, less than 15 per cent of the askings, which amount was paid by only forty charges, the remaining two hundred and thirty charges reporting no moneys raised for the support of the Collège;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That this united session of the Annual Conference and Lay Conference of the West Virginia Conference direct and instruct all our District Superintendents, Pastors, Quarterly Conferences and Official Boards as follows:

1. That each charge be asked to give at the least an amount equal to Fifty Cents ($0.50) per member per year for West Virginia Wesleyan College. If desired one-third of the amount asked may be sent as a designated gift through the Board of Education and World Service credit received. When so designated, contributions must be sent direct to the Treasurer of the Board of Education at 740 Rush Street, Chicago, Illinois and plainly marked "Designated gift for West Virginia Wesleyan College."

2. That in the month of May or November of each year there be conducted in each charge a campaign to raise the amount asked from the charge for the College.

3. That, in order to effectively carry forward the campaign for the public educational collections as above provided for, the District Superintendents, in consultation with the President of the College, shall nominate a committee of thirteen, to consist of the President of the College, who shall be chairman, and one minister and one layman from each district, to be elected by the Conference, which committee shall have charge of the campaign.

4. That we call upon the District Superintendents, Pastors, Laymen of the Conference, Faculty and Trustees of the College, to give every possible assistance to the committee in the work of the campaign.

H. D. Ketcham offered an amendment which was accepted by J. E. Wells,—“Under like conditions as named in above resolution, that ten cents per member be requested for the Wesley Foundation.”

On motion, one and one-half cents per member was ordered assessed for the Area Conference Program, payments to be sent direct to the Area office.

Bishop Leonard pronounced the benediction and the United Session stood adjourned.

FIFTH DAY, SATURDAY — AFTERNOON SESSION

The Conference was called to order by Bishop Leonard at two o'clock. Hymn No. 489: “He Leadeth Me,” was sung and Reading 738 in the Hymnal used.

On motion by John L. Wolfe, Gregory Bleakly was granted the retired relation and his case referred to the Board of Stewards.

On motion by John L. Wolfe, it was ordered that a Committee of five laymen and five ministers be appointed as a clearing committee to check the prorating of Ministerial Support.

V. C. Cutright was called and Bishop Leonard received him into Full Membership in the Conference.

On motion by H. E. Wark, A. F. Shomo, Arthur Lazenby, S. C. Jones were appointed to The West Virginia Council of Religious Education.

On motion, the Pacific Northwest Conference was requested to reinstate Earl Geisey and that Bishop Lowe be requested to transfer him to this Conference.

Disciplinary Question 25: On motion, D. L. Thompson was changed from the effective to the supernumerary relation.

On motion by J. B. Workman, the Bishop was requested to appoint W. M. Schultz, as Executive Secretary of the Permanent Trust Fund Association.

On motion by J. C. Buckley, the appointment of H. T. Heironimus as Conference Evangelist, was requested.

On motion by P. Y. DeBolt, the appointment of W. A. Grogg as Conference Evangelist was requested.

DISCIPLINARY QUESTIONS—Question 24: What other personal Notation should be made? (1) Those whose orders have been recognized without Admission to the Annual Conference. Harry Garrett, M. E. Church, So.—Local Elder.

The following committees made their reports which were accepted and filed with the Secretary's records. Respects by M. W. Castle; Periodicals by W. L. Cheuvront; Minutes Fund by F. V. Arnett; Temperance by W. T. W. Sleeth; Sabbath Observance by C. C. Durst; Parsonage by B. H. Keesecker; District Journals by G. C. Stratton. Special reports were presented H. C. Howard for the Committee on The Christian Advocate; Wm. Coleman for the Auditing Committee and S. B. Hart for the Committee on World Service.

The following committee on financing the Conference Minutes was nominated by the Cabinet and elected. Joseph VanSickle, J. B. Workman, S. B. Hart, M. W. Castle, M. C. Miles, D. C. Pickens, J. E. Wells.

The following Resolution was offered by A. S. Wolfe and adopted. Since the Board of Stewards is authorized by recent General Conference legislation to apportion to Conference organizations and institutions employing Conference men the same per cent for Conference Claimants for immediate distribution, based on cash salary, as is placed on the Churches, we ask this Conference to approve the measure to take effect by next Conference session.

The Committee on Financing the Conference Minutes presented the following resolution, which was adopted: Resolved, that the Conference Treasurer be authorized to negotiate a loan to pay The Paragon Printing Co., for money due on Conference Minutes and that the Committee on Financing the Conference Minutes be asked to work out a plan to reimburse the Treasurer.

On motion by the Secretary, the report of the Historical Committee was accepted and ordered printed in the Minutes.

On motion, an Executive Session was ordered for 3:45 o'clock, and the session adjourned.

IX. REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Bishop Leonard and Members of the West Virginia Conference:

For the seventh time the West Virginia Conference meets in the beautiful and historic little city of Moundsville. For the past four years this Area has enjoyed the supervision of Bishop Herbert Welch, whose character and abilities endeared him to all and greatly aided in the development of the work. Our new Bishop, Adna W. Leonard has been well known to us for his work elsewhere and we rejoice in the belief that he will aid our own Conference and the whole Area, in the effort to go on to perfection in genuine Methodist fashion. We urge upon our brethren of the Conference, loyal cooperation with our new leader and earnest devotion to the work of the future.

Our Honored Dead. In addition to the minister's and minister's wives who died during the year and whose names appear elsewhere in the Journal, we note that of the infant son of Wirt and Mrs. Hatfield of Sun Hill charge and the infant daughter of W. D. and Mrs. Swan of Rowlesburg. To the sorrowing friends of all we extend our deepest sympathy.

One year ago 261 preachers were appointed to pastoral charges, six to district and eleven to special work, of which 100 were first year appointments. All but three have continued in the active work.

Revivals. Very successful revivals have been held throughout the Conference with the following results reported: Parkersburg District 2642 conversions and 1452 accessions to the Church; Huntington, 1900 conversions and 1225 accessions; Wheeling, 1536 conversions and 1302 accessions; Morgantown, 1600 conversions and 900 accessions; Buckhannon, 2500 conversions and 1215 accessions; Charleston, 1500 conversions and 1200 accessions.

Religious Education. A fine increase in Standard Training Schools and Daily Vacation Bible Schools is reported. A series of coaching conferences have been held and there are now sixty accredited instructors in the Conference. Around 600 Standard Training Credits were earned this year. Week-day Religious Education continues in several of our churches in Wheeling. The Annual Epworth League Institute enrolled a total of 183 delegates and 30 members on the staff. The spirit of the young people was noted by all as being exceptionally fine this year and promised much for leadership improvement in all local churches fortunate enough to have young people in attendance.

Wesleyan College. The College had had an excellent year in every thing except the financial difficulties incident to the lessened ability of its friends to give to its support and the diminished income from investments and other sources of help. We reaffirm that "West Virginia Wesleyan College is the greatest single institution of the church in this Conference," and deserves our prayers, our money and the choicest young people from our homes and congregations. Last year showed an increase of 21 in regular full time students over the previous year. The extension Summer School at Logan was a new venture and very successful, having an enrollment of 115. Counting the students enrolled there it was found there was a gain for the year of 129.

Wesley Foundation. In addition to the splendid work that we are doing in our own denominational college we have made considerable progress in reaching the students who are attending our tax supported State University.

Building and Improvements. Very few extensive building programs are now being carried forward. Highlawn Church, Huntington has added a $10,000 addition to its plant. The church at Jeffrey has been moved to a beautiful new site at a cost of $1700.00. The church at Lavalette has also been moved to a new location. The congregation of Alexander Church, Huntington has repurchased the unfinished plant which was sold for debts they could not meet and plan to remodel it into a beautiful church plant at a nominal cost. Central Church, Charleston completed and dedicated free of debt a splendid mission church at Slip Hill. Stauton Circuit has a splendid new parsonage free of debt. The church at Grantown in Morgantown District, which burned a few years ago, is being rebuilt.

The Rural Church. Our Rural Churches are not in a state of decay but are carrying on a vigorous and well rounded program of work.

Conclusion. We are glad to report that although salaries have been smaller than for many years, the lights have not gone out in no parsonage home because the preacher and his family were unwilling to share with people in their poverty and stay at their post until a better day comes. We can tell of men who have endured hardships as good soldiers of Jesus Christ and loyal Methodists of the old time spirit who have sacrificed to the limit that those who build the Kingdom of God among them might continue to preach the Gospel. On a memorial stone at Jamestown are written these words: "In grateful remembrance of the adventurers who through evil report and loss of fortune, through suffering and death, maintained stout hearts and laid the foundations of our country." May we too, maintain brave hearts through these trying times and build still higher the Church of our Lord. Amen.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE SECRETARY PERMANENT TRUST FUND

To Bishop Leonard and the Members of the West Virginia Conference,

With gratitude to Almighty God for the blessings of another year, I make this, my second annual report of the Permanent Trust Fund of the West Virginia Conference.

I count it a rare privilege to have some part in the statesman-like far-reaching movement which the Methodist Episcopal Church is engaged in behalf of our veteran preachers. Too long these aged and veteran ministers of ours have been neglected. Too often we have been so busy in leading the victorious host to higher heights as to forget the men who made possible West Virginia Methodism of today. Our reference to the support of conference claimants has been punctuated with regretful remarks and apologetic hesitation.

This report is a candid attempt to set forth our successes and our failures. Darkness begets indifference. Ignorance concerning our cause is our worst enemy. Sympathy would be moved, and interest stirred if the light of truth and dire need were flashed on our cause. The real conviction of the church for this cause has not been practically expressed nor its strength delivered.

Our Conference Claimants have not had a square deal at the hands of their friends.

At the close of our last annual conference session, we had 71 retired preachers, 59 widows, and 20 children, making a family of dependents of 160 people. Leave the children out of the calculation, and we paid an average pension for the retired preachers and their widows, the pitiable sum of eighty cents a day with which to provide a home, food, clothing, fuel, all on that shamefully small sum.

One year ago, in making my report to this body, I said, "no year in the history of West Virginia Methodism could have been more inopportune to raise money on a large scale for this or any other cause. Falling off of World Service, drastic cuts in salaries especially among the poorer paid men has caused discouragement not easily thrown off.

All in this respect that I said one year ago can now be repeated with such emphasis that we but little dreamed about twelve months ago. This has not been a good year financially for our fund, nor for any other fund in Methodism. There are, however, some things which we shall report that to say the least are heartening.

I have preached 80 times, and have visited 60 churches during the year and have presented the Permanent Trust Fund with varying results. We have received in cash and new subscriptions, $25,000, of which $16,764 is in cash.

My Audit will show disbursements.

The Permanent Trust Fund writes a most attractive life income bond which for security and yield is unsurpassed by any other investment.

Another way one can help our fund is to suggest to folks making their wills to remember us in the same. I am glad to report to you that on the first of August, the will of Mrs. Dora Jamison was probated, making us, with Diamond Street residuary, legatees which will give to Diamond Street and our fund, fifteen to thirty thousand dollars each.

Your secretary has assisted in the writing of ten or twelve wills which if they are not disturbed will yield to our fund quite a handsome sum.

While we have made some advancement this year, let me again remind you that our greatest need is having one-hundred percent cooperation between pastors and the secretary. Pastors must find folks who have money and are kindly disposed to us and report the same to the executive secretary for follow up work.

Oh, ye forgetful preachers, pleading for schools and colleges, for missions and hospitals, for black men and yellow men, red men and brown men, ministers whose sympathies go out to the ends of the earth, why don't you speak for the Veteran Preachers?

The income required to meet the needs of the Retired Ministers is not large enough, and will not be until Pastors speak out without apology, without hesitation, without false modesty, then and not until then, will these funds be large enough to meet the needs of these founders of Methodism in West Virginia.

You do not hesitate to plead for China, Africa, Korea, Belgium, France, Germany. Why do we fail to speak for our own people, for our own brothers, and their dependents who received so little last year, and who doubtless will receive less this year, and whose fault is it but our own?

Our Laymen are puzzled because preachers are hoarse from shouting the needs of the heathen when these same preachers can scarcely say a word about the needs or in behalf of the retired preachers.

Our bishops in 1914, at the semi-annual meetings demanded of us as preachers to give the "Supreme Claim," the supreme place, and closed their address and appeal to the church as follows:

"We pledge ourselves and, as far as we may pledge the whole church to full and loyal cooperation to this new and better day for the church we love and the men we honor."

"God himself has a care of those whom he has called to be his ambassadors. He counted their neglect one of the chief sins of Israel. Jesus in the New Testament emphasized this truth in the story of the Good Shepherd and all through his messages he said the 'Laborer is worthy of his hire'."

Whence as Methodists came we? We are debtors to others, to parents who watched over us, to forefathers who suffered, patriots who fought, preachers who labored, prayed and loved.

I may only suggest that it is base ingratitude to use false modesty and forget our own. Brethren, shall we continue to do this. What will your personal answer be?

I should like to close this report with an earnest prayer.

O, Lord Jesus, Thou gracious Shepherd and Bishop of our souls, we beseech Thee for thy ministering servants now aged and infirm, and no longer able to work as active laborers in thy vineyard, leave them not, neither forsake them in this, their hour of need, and as the psalmist said, "Cast us not off in the time of our old age."

Open the hearts and hands of thy people for their support and comfort, so that the evening of life shall be free from financial cares and anxiety.

Let the funds which thy church has established for their relief be increased many fold so that neither they nor their helpless dependents may ever come to want.

All this we ask in the name of thy well beloved son and in the name of common brotherhood. Amen.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. SCHULTZ.

AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS AND RECORDS OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE PERMANENT TRUST FUND ASSOCIATION

Charleston, W. Va.
September 19, 1932.

Permanent Trust Fund Association
of the West Virginia Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church.

Gentlemen:

In accordance with arrangements made with Rev. W. M. Schultz, I have made an audit of the accounts and records of the Executive Secretary of the Permanent Trust Fund Association of the West Virginia Conference for the period from October 1, 1930, to September 17, 1932.

During this period, the total funds collected in cash or securities, according to the records, amounted to $16,614.26, as shown by the following statement:

RECEIPTS:

Amount received from old subscriptions, new subscriptions, special gifts, one per cent from ministers, and from all other sources	$16,614.26

DISBURSEMENTS:

Amount retained by Secretary as part payment of salary and expenses	5,032.14
Amount forwarded to Treasurer in cash and securities	9,653.00
Amount paid by Secretary for stationery, supplies and other expenses	241.24
Checks Charged back by bank and not re-deposited or redeemed	56.68
Total Accounted for	$14,983.06

BALANCE September 17, 1932, on deposit in Kanawha Valley Bank, Charleston, W. Va., to credit of Association$ 1,631.20

The salary of the Executive Secretary for the two years amounted to $5,900.00 and his expenses for traveling, postage, books, office supplies, stationery and other items amounted to $1,091.66. For the first eight months of 1931 the Secretary's salary and expenses were paid by the Treasurer. During the balance of the two-year period, these items were paid by the Secretary to himself out of collections.

The balance of cash in bank at September 17, 1932, amounting to $1,631.20, was $42.57 in excess of the balance shown by the Secretary's cash book. We assume that this difference is the result of errors in entering receipts upon the cash book, $27.44 of which appears to belong in the first year and $15.13 in the second year of that period.

Respectfully submitted,

HOWELL, CURETON & CO.
 By H. R. HOWELL,

REPORT OF CONFERENCE EVANGELIST

Dear Bishop and Brethren of the West Virginia Conference:

I have conducted Fifteen revivals this Conference year. The Lord has blessed in a marvelous way in the Salvation of Souls, and the up-building of the Redeemer's Kingdom in the hearts of men. There have been over eight-hundred bowed at an altar of prayer, and prayed through to victory. Many have joined the Methodist church, and a large number went to other churches, or denominations.

I have preached 376 times this Conference year, the Lord has been so gracious to me, given me good health, never missed a service on account of sickness.

Finances have not been so good, yet the Lord has taken care of my Labor. I have received $1400.00 plus my expense.

This has been one of the best years of my ministry, in many ways.

I have found the men I worked with, men of God, with a zeal for souls. I am rejoicing in a real experience, in Christ.

Yours in Jesus' Name, this, the 20th of September, 1932,
W. A. GROGG.

REPORT OF AUDITING COMMITTEE WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

We have examined the following accounts and found them correct:

The Conference Minute Fund, The Conference Treasurer, Director of Religious Education, Salary and Expense, The Missionary accounts of the District Superintendents, Revs. L. S. Grose, W. B. King, P. Y. DeBolt, John L. Wolfe, J. C. Buckley and J. W. Engle.

The special fund created by Rev. John L. Wolfe, and others, for the Rev. J. J. Loudin's family, during much sickness and sorrow.

The Board of Stewards accounts showed a balance on hand of $1735.51.

The accounts of the Secretary of the Permanent Trust Fund were audited by Certified Public Accountants and presented to the Conference by the Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

GREGORY BLEAKLEY,
Chairman,
WILLIAM COLEMAN,
Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

Your committee reports as follows:

FIRST: It was moved and seconded that we approve the method presented by Dr. Joy, of furnishing adequate news service to the West Virginia Conference which is equal to that given to each of the other fifteen Conferences of the territory served by the Christian Advocate, and therefore disapprove of a special Pittsburgh area edition.

SECOND: Recognizing the importance of every pastor and official member being a subscriber and reader of the Christian Advocate, we urge upon the district Superintendent the importance of bringing this matter to their attention.

THIRD: That we are gratified that the price of the Christian Advocate will remain the same as the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate.

WILBUR V. MALLALIEU, Chairman
H. C. HOWARD, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY THE LAST ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Members of the committee: C. E. Goodwin, J. E. Scott, D. C. Pickens, J. E. Wells, F. S. Bishop, M. S. Collins.

After studying the form of entertainment used by several different conferences of our church and other denominations the committee wish to recommend that:

A commission of seven members of the conference be elected by the conference to have charge of conference entertainment.

Two of these members be elected for one year, two for two years, and three for three years, and that thereafter the members be elected for a period of three years in the same order.

The new members of the commission shall be nominated by the commission and elected by the Annual Conference.

That the churches of the conference which desire to entertain the conference shall make application in writing to the commission not later than April 1st of each year. The commission shall study the qualifications of those churches applying as to their ability to entertain the conference and shall make a contract with one of these churches to entertain the conference providing lodging, meals and other entertainment necessary for the conference.

That the commission shall provide for each conference member and approved supply Preacher, traveling expense at the rate of 5 cents per mile, direct air line, between the charge and the seat of the annual conference. It is understood that in case there is not sufficient funds to pay at this rate that a transportation allowance be distributed pro rata between the pastors whose charges have paid their apportionment to conference entertainment fund.

That the conference shall apportion to each charge an amount equal to 1% of the cash salary of the charge to be turned over to the commission at the opening of conference.

That the supernumery and detached men shall pay, or have paid for them 1% of their cash salary into this fund and shall profit by the conference entertainment and transportation benefits of the entertainment fund.

That the details of this plan shall be left in the hands of the commission to be worked out, and that this plan be effective for the next conference session.

WORLD SERVICE COMMISSION

The Commission on World Service Presents the Following Reports and Recommendations:

OBJECTIVES

1. For each local Church.

Each member of the Church participating in the total World Service program through a weekly contribution.

Each member of the Church intelligently inspired to this giving.

Each member of the Church to place in his calendar of prayer the causes and interests of World Service.

2. For the steady maintenance of the general benevolence program of the whole Church.

Each local Church will be urged to seek through the Every Member Canvass or other every member participation, its total world Service apportionment to be forwarded to the Central Treasury and divided among the several agencies according to the percentages adopted by the World Service Commission.

When any local Church or group within a Church desires to designate any part of its World Service giving to any Board or project approved by and Board, we urge that proportionate designation be made to all other World Service causes on the basis of the approved ratios in order that the total World Service program be maintained.

Each local Church may supplement the Every Member Canvass by any or all of the following methods:

Public collections in the Church or in any of its groups for a given cause or project as local conditions may make desirable and possible.

Gifts from individuals particularly interested in any one of the various causes who desire to supplement their weekly giving by larger gifts.

Gifts from smaller groups within the Church raised in special ways as the occasion may require.

3. Methods of promoting the local Church program.

We believe that the Every Member Canvass is the best method of securing every member participation.

An adequate presentation of missionary education, especially preceding the Every Member Canvass.

The systematic use of a prayer calendar in every home.

The practice of Christian stewardship by each Church member.

4. For each local Sunday School.

A regular offering at least monthly for the total distributable World Service fund.

This monthly offering to be supplemented when desired by any or all of the various methods suggested above.

5. That October sixteenth be observed as Rally Day and on that day a special offering be taken for Word Service, and this offering be sent at once to the Treasurer of the World Service Commission.

S. B. HART, Chairman.

SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY

The Fifth Annual Session of the Western Virginia Conference: 1852

The fifth annual session of the Western Virginia Conference was held at Morgantown, Virginia, beginning Thursday morning, June 10, 1852. The presiding officer was Bishop Matthew Simpson who conducted the opening religious service. Alexander Martin was elected Secretary and S. R. Dawson, Assistant.

Admitted into full connection: Levi Park, Jas. S. Hall, Spencer King, D. H. K. Dix, Lorenzo D. Hill, Robert Brooks. Ordained Elders: Daniel Waddle, Asby Stephens, John A. Williams, Thos. H. Monroe, Wm. Sexsmith. Ordained deacons: Levi Park, Jas. S. Hall, Spencer King, D. H. K. Dix, Lorenzo D. Hill, Robert Brooks. Admitted on trial: Wm. Sexsmith, Edward McCarty, James B. Blakeney, Adam C. Higgins, John B. Hill, Wm. Hardwick, Wm. M. Lambdin.

A committee recommended that the minutes of this Conference be printed in pamphlet form, but the report was voted down and the minutes for the first six years and also for 1857 were never printed, hence these summary reproductions. This Conference acquired by action of the General Conference of 1852 a number of charges from the Pittsburgh Conference. The report of the North-Western Academy at Clarksburg showed the attendance of students had increased to 95 with "orderly and studious deportment." Alexander Martin, A. M., ably filled the post of principal. Endowment under a plan previously adopted by the Conference was hoped for, and the institution was incorporated. A visiting committee was appointed by the Bishop. The Conference Missionary Society held its annual meeting on the evening of June 12, and raised $329.67 in life memberships.

A committee was appointed to take into consideration the interests of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate. Increased number of subscriptions was urged, and the preachers agreed to waive their commissions on collections if those of the Pittsburgh and Erie Conferences did the same, provided they received a free copy of the paper and necessary postage to transact the business. The annual report of the Book Committee reflected a prosperous year for the Western Book Concern. Certain charges growing out of slavery were preferred against B. F. Sedwick but his name appeared in the appointments. Five towns were nominated for the place of holding the next session and Weston was chosen.

Malden church appealed for financial help and collections were recommended to other congregations to relieve her straits. A memoir to Rev. George W. Deemer, deceased, was adopted. A day of fasting and prayer was ordered.

The total membership in 1852 was as follows: White, 13,929; colored, 348; probationers, 2,503; local preachers, 147; total, 16,927. Total benevolences, $1,822.86.

Respectfully submitted,

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY,

By WM. BURDETTE MATHEWS,
Chairman.

REPORT OF PERMANENT TRUST FUND TREASURER

TO THE M. E. CONFERENCE OF WEST VIRGINIA:

Your undersigned treasurer of the Permanent Trust Fund Association begs leave to report that a complete audit was made of his accounts by a regular accountant, and the report filed with the President of the Board of Directors of the Association, and for that reason no formal report was made by me to the Conference, and I am making this very general report for the Board of Stewards and for the Conference Minutes.

The following is a summary of assets:

Bonds and Stocks aggregating.....	$326,575.00
Miscellaneous assets bearing interest.....	8,305.00
Miscellaneous assets non-productive	2,060.00
No Real Estate
Total Net Earnings this Conference year	12,597.84
New Assets	1,200.00

Quite a number of the bonds defaulted interest payments during the year, and when the interest coupons were charged back and annuities paid it left the net earnings above given, for which checks were delivered to the Conference Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted, this 3rd day of October, 1932.

U. G. YOUNG,
 Treasurer.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION

1. Religious Education in the Conference.

We recommend that the work of the Conference Director of Religious Education be continued as one of our major Conference wide activities. We express our appreciation to both the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Education for approving our project for the designation of World Service giving. We pledge our cooperation with the Conference Director in soliciting designated gifts until the full budget is met.

2. West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Your Board notes with gratification the fine record of West Virginia Wesleyan College for the past year. It concurs in the report of the District Superintendents that the college should be one of the major considerations of this Conference. We heartily approve and recommend the resolution which will be presented, outlining a plan for a larger financial support of the college. The burden of maintaining the college in such distressing times must not be allowed to fall with crushing weight upon the President and Faculty, and not entirely upon the Board of Trustees. West Virginia Wesleyan College belongs to the entire Conference and ministers and laymen alike must share in its support. Both students and money are needed. We ask therefore, that the Conference face most seriously the situation and meet the conditions necessary to care for the Institution immediately. We nominate the following persons as trustees for a term of four years: C. G. Stater, M. C. Miles, D. C. Pickens, W. H. Newcomb, U. G. Young, E. Ray Jones, S. T. Spears, S. B. Hart, Mary I. Scott, Arthur V. Upton, As visitors to the college: M. C. Miles and Prof. J. A. Jackson.

3. Wesley Foundation.

We commend to this Conference the work of the Wesley Foundation at West Virginia University. Methodism cannot afford to neglect College and University Students. From among them will come the men and women who will soon be the leaders of our State and Conference.

Nearly eight hundred Methodist students are enrolled at the State University and we have more students than any other denomination. We do well to appoint a pastor for them and to maintain Wesley House as a student center.

The Foundation was formerly maintained largely out of World Service. It is still maintained largely out of World Service but most of the money must now be designated by the people who give it. Red tape has been cut to a minimum. Our churches can and ought to designate something for the maintenance of our work among the students at the State University.

We recommend that the following persons be elected to the Board of Directors of Wesley Foundation at West Virginia University.:

One Year: W. E. Arnett, C. W. Evans, C. E. Goodwin, H. D. Ketcham.

Two Years: C. G. Stater, L. C. Shingleton, W. E. Stone, W. T. Williamson.

Three Years: W. M. Schultz, W. V. Mallalieu, Ellis A. Yost.

Four Years: Sheridan Watson Bell, Frank B. Trotter, D. C. Pickens, Robert A. Armstrong.

Visitors to the Wesley Foundation at West Virginia University: D. C. Tabler, A. F. Shomo.

The Director of the Foundation is ex-officio Secretary of the Board of Directors.

The Bishop and District Superintendents are members of the Board by virtue of their offices.

THE WEST VIRGINIA COUNCIL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

By Z. B. EDWORTHY

I have asked the privilege of paying for this space that I might present to the Ministers and laymen of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, What the West Virginia Council is, What the Council does and some of the specific contributions the Council has made to West Virginia Methodism, as a definite part of Methodism's Kingdom work.

The West Virginia Council of Religious Education is the West Virginia unit of the International Council which is made up by representatives officially appointed by forty-three Protestant denominations representing nearly 90% of the Protestant membership of North America.

The West Virginia Council seeks to aid the denominations in enriching and extending the educational work in the local churches. To this end, the Council promotes Standard Schools of Leadership Training, Young People's Conferences, County and District Institutes and Conventions, Institutes for training Daily Vacation Bible School workers, Community Vacation Bible Schools, Week-day Schools of Religious Education, and in addition the Council conducts a consultation service diagnosing and prescribing aids for overcoming problems in the local Church and Sunday School. The Council provides help for workers in all departments of the Church School both large and small, maintains and circulates an extensive library in Religious Education; supplies, free, hundreds of bulletins dealing with every phase of Religious Education. The Council maintains a suite of offices which keeps up contact throughout the state offering vastly more help for the improvement of Religious Education in local schools than is drawn upon and utilized by Pastors and Church School workers. The Council at present has a staff of two field workers and one Office assistant. There is no agency doing such a vital piece of work and reaching such a large area which operates on such a small budget as does the West Virginia Council. The staff consists of Rev. F. E. Brininstool, General Secretary and Director of Adult and Administration Divisions; Rev. Z. B. Edworthy, Director of Young People's Work and Leadership Training and Mrs. Lena L. Spencer, Office Secretary and Acting Director of Children's Work.

During the past seven years, the West Virginia Council has promoted 112 Standard Schools of Leadership Training and 43 Standard Cooperative Classes in Leadership Training. Of the 6898 credits granted in these schools and classes 1581 have been granted to workers in Methodist Episcopal Sunday Schools. The Council is not an "outside" agency but is created by the denominations to aid them in improving their own work and to serve as an agency where a single denomination could not operate. The Council promotes High School Bible Study for credit; Week-day Schools of Religious Education and as the representative of united Protestantism in West Virginia, maintains contacts with the State Board of Education, the State Legislature and other state and community forces which would not entertain approaches from a single denomination. The Council is your agency and we urge all Pastors to avail themselves of the services the Council offers.

Your fellow-worker in the Kingdom enterprise.

Z. B. EDWORTHY,
Director of Leadership Training and Young People's Work.

Tributes

HENRY M. STRADER

The Rev. Henry Martin Strader, son of Isaac and Julia Criss Strader, was born in Upsher County, W. Va., February 22, 1856, and passed to his eternal reward, December 26, 1931.

He was married to Miss Emma O'Neal on October 29, 1885. To this union were born five children. He is survived by his wife, four children, Bertha, Amy, Oscar and Herman, the last-named being now a probationer of the West Virginia Conference; three sisters.

Brother Strader was converted at the age of fourteen and later received the blessing of sanctification. He was licensed to preach October 29, 1892. He joined the West Virginia Conference in 1893. He served the following charges: Mingo, Kerns, Troy, Centerville, Flatwoods (two terms), Glenville, Freemansburg, Buckhannon Circuit, and Philippi Circuit. He served faithfully and well for a period of thirty-three years, all in Buckhannon District. When he retired, he made his home in Philippi.

Brother Strader was both a student and a teacher in the public schools. He also liked to farm, both of which better fitted him to be the successful rural pastor that he was. He loved and was loved by the people of his parish. Dr. L. S. Grose said at his funeral, "He was a pattern."

He was a man of faith and prayer and possessed a longing passion for lost men. Even when the years had slipped upon him and his friends thought he should rest, he was reluctant to retire. He said in prayer meeting just a few days before going away, "The hardest thing I have to do is to quit coming to my Father's house." God spared him the worry, for He took him to His own sanctuary. We can hear the Father say: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord."

The esteem in which he was held by the people of his home community was evidenced by the large crowd who came to witness his body lowered to its last resting place in the Mount Vernon Cemetery. The funeral services were in charge of his pastor, the writer, assisted by the Revs. L. S. Grose, S. B. Hart, O. E. Elkins, G. C. Stratton. All the ministers of the town and a number of neighboring pastors attended the funeral.

H. S. CHAPMAN.

J. C. STRADER

On Sunday morning, Aug. 28, 1932, just as the church bells were calling to worship, the spirit of Rev. J. C. Strader, a retired member of the West Virginia Conference, slipped out of its earthly abode and went to dwell in the heavenly. Bro. Strader had been ill for some time and the change was not a surprise to his immediate friends.

Rev. Strader was born in Upshur County, Aug. 4, 1861, and later moved with his parents to Barbour County, where he grew to manhood on a farm near Philippi, West Virginia. He started his public life as a teacher and later felt the call to the ministry and joined the West Virginia Conference in 1888. He was married twice. His first wife was Miss Martha Sipe, of Barbour County, who died a number of years ago leaving him with a large family of children. His second wife was Miss Lida Frey of Ronceverte, W. Va. His nine children, with the exception of one son who died in early childhood, grew to maturity and are all filling responsible places in life. They were all present at the funeral. A perfect example of family unity and strength.

Bro. Strader had an outstanding ministry. He served thirty-eight years and had the following assignments: Concord, Clay, Holly Grove, Glenville, Smithfield, Alma, Ronceverte, Fairview, Davis, Pennsboro, Benwood, Newburg, Blaine, Hundred, Reedsville and Bayard. His preaching was of the revivalist type and the Lord choose to bless his labor abundantly. Many people were strengthened in their religious faith and scores were saved from sin. He was a strong advocate of the temperance cause and also had great faith in the missionary enterprise of the great church which he served.

When he retired from active service, six years ago, and made his home in Philippi, it seemed that he would have a long, beautiful and somewhat active retirement. But death intervened and his faithful companion, children, and many friends are left to wait and watch for the eternal morning. While we all felt the chill of death, yet it was a rare privilege to see his soul expand into eternal beauty.

Funeral services were conducted at the Philippi M. E. Church by the writer, assisted by Revs. C. E. Goodwin and J. D. Engle. The body was laid to rest in the family cemetery at Mt. Vernon Church in the presence of a number of his brethren in the Conference and sorrowing friends.

N. H. PRINCE

Brother N. H. Prince, retired minister of the West Virginia Conference, passed away early in the year in Arizona. His family is still living in that State. He was held in highest esteem by his brethren and his love and regard for his Conference was shown in the fact that he deeded to The Board of Stewards, forty acres of land in Arizona, which will afford at some time in the future an income from oil and gas.

OTIS W. WATERS

Rev. Otis Watson Waters, son of Nelson and Malinda Snider Waters, was born in Flickersville, Monongalia County, West Virginia, December 10, 1854, and spent practically his entire life in his native County. He received his early education in the district schools and taught for a few years, later entering the West Virginia University, from which institution he was graduated.

Brother Waters was converted in early life, and feeling the urge to the ministry, entered Ohio Wesleyan University for further Education and training for his life's work. He was later a student in Baldwin College. While studying in these institutions, he served several pastorates in the Ohio Conference, the first being Olive Green, Ohio.

After a few years he felt a longing for his native state, and was transferred from the Ohio Conference to the West Virginia Conference and appointed to the Morgantown circuit, serving well here, he was appointed to Fairmont Circuit, then to Blacksville, and again returned to the Morgantown circuit. He retired from the active relation in the Conference about twenty years ago, and has lived in Morgantown since that time. After retirement, he supplied several pastorates in the locality of his native city.

His good wife, Mary Davis Waters, died in 1927.

Brother Waters was an honored member of First Church, Morgantown, and entered into all its activities with an enthusiasm so characteristic of him. He was an active member of the Morgantown Methodist Ministers Association and always took an active part in all its deliberations, serving several official positions in the organization. He was president of the Retired Ministers' Association of the West Virginia Conference for some years, and during that time led in several new plans and arrangements for its betterment.

On Friday evening, December 19, 1931, after returning home from a visit among friends in the city, he suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he never rallied, and after lingering for about twelve hours, slipped out into the eternal world and to the rest he so richly deserved, there to be with those whom he had loved long since and lost awhile.

He is survived by one brother, Max Waters of Morgantown, two daughters Ruby B. Waters at home, and Mrs. Gladys M. Riddle of Huntington, and two grandsons, Walter Riddle, Jr., and Robert Waters Riddle, both of Huntington.

Thus has gone from among us, one of God's choice men, interested in every activity of the church and all that goes to make our world more Christian.

PHILIP Y. DeBOLT.

CHRISTOPHER BREAM GRAHAM

Christopher Bream Graham, was a native of Charleston, W. Va., having been born there May 19, 1850, and even in the years of his non-residence he was always intensely loyal to the Great Kanawha Valley. He lived to see the village of Charleston, with barely 1,000 population, grow into a city of over 60,000, and in that growth, threw his indomitable energy into its business, educational, and spiritual progress, and development.

Not content with the routine of business, or the advantages afforded in the local schools, his ambition took young Graham to Kentucky, for a course of study, and upon his return, he engaged in teaching. While thus engaged, he was appointed deputy superintendent of public schools for Kanawha County. He also served as secretary of the Board of Education of Elk District. His scholastic aspirations were such that he became largely self-educated, and his belief in Christian education was attested by the fact that he became one of the founders of West Virginia Wesleyan College and served that institution on the board of trustees for many years. He also served on the State Normal School Board of Regents and the board for the Industrial School for Girls.

A definite call to preach the gospel impelled him to join the West Virginia Conference in 1879. He was ordained a deacon in 1881 by Bishop R. S. Foster, and an elder in 1883, by Bishop W. L. Harris. He took high rank in the Conference as a pastor, was assigned to good pastorates, and his leadership was recognized by appointment for full terms as presiding elder of Charleston and Wheeling Districts. In both he founded and built many new churches, among the most notable of which is Central Church, Charleston. In 1904, Sciota College conferred on him the honorary degree of doctor of divinity.

It is not within the purview of this sketch to give a detailed account of Doctor Graham's pastoral work. It speaks for itself.

He had a wide vision and was greatly interested in the general activities of the church, serving on many boards and commissions. He was the head of the West Virginia Conference delegation to the General Conference of 1904 at Los Angeles, and made a good legislative record. He also was a delegate to the Fifth Ecumenical Methodist Conference at London in 1921, and participated in the discussions of that body. He was president of the West Virginia Anti-Saloon League upon its organization and was active in its work. In civic affairs, he always took a prominent part, and while he retired from the ministry after thirty-four years of effective service, he still was active in the work of the church. He was faithful in the pew as he had been in the pulpit and was present the Sunday before his death. Besides his church and community activities, his later years were devoted to business, which was pushed with the energy of one a score of his years his junior. Indeed, we could not think of our friend as an octogenarian. He passed to his reward, January 22, 1932.

WILLIAM BURDETTE MATHEWS.

MRS. LOGAN S. GROSE

Ella Grace Brown, daughter of David and Margaret Brown, was born in Schuylkill County, Pa., and in early life came to West Virginia with her parents. She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in her youth, under the ministry of William Wirt King. She taught for a number of years in the schools of Fayette County. Thirty-five years ago, she was united in marriage with the Rev. Logan S. Grose. She fully shared in his ministry and by her wise counsel and quiet helpfulness greatly aided him in his work. She was held in high esteem in all the communities where he served as pastor.

On the morning of August 29, 1932, sister Grose, after a brief illness passed to her reward. Her going was a distinct shock to all of her friends. The suddenness of her death did not find her unready or without preparation. Through the years of her Christian living she had prepared herself for the hour and article of death, and when that hour came, she was calm and unafraid.

The words spoken at the funeral service by one who knew her very well are very fitting and we incorporate some excerpts of them here. "There were in her life many estimable qualities, such as goodness, helpfulness, kindness, patience and many others. She had a 'faith that did not shrink though pressed by every foe.' Her vocabulary seemed to contain but few words of doubt. The day was never so filled with clouds nor the night so dense with darkness as to cause her to falter or be afraid. She seemed to believe that 'God'll sprinkle sunshine in the trail of every cloud.'

Also there was in her life the element of tranquility. There are streams that are very shallow, and at every storm are greatly disturbed. There are other streams that are very deep and though the storms may color their waters and slightly disturb the surface, they go on their placid way with no marked agitation. The stream of Sister Grose's life was like that. She rose to no great heights of enthusiasm and ecstasy; neither did she descend to the valleys of despondency. Her life was rather like a river fed with perennial springs and thus maintains quite an even level in season and out of season.

Further, her life was especially marked by the quality of quietness. She was indeed the quiet queen of the parsonage. She spent little time and energy telling either of the things she had done or the things she proposed to do. She went quietly on her way doing good."

"The blessings of her quiet life
Fell on us like the dew;
And good thoughts were her footsteps pressed
Like fairy blossoms grew."

The surviving relatives, besides her husband and daughter, Lois Grose, are Sisters—Mrs. Mary A. Mulhollan and Elizabeth Brown, Rathmel, Pa., Mrs. J. W. Lowry, Huntington, West Va., Mrs. Andrew Huffman, Berkeley Springs, W. Va., Mrs. Fenton M. Morris, Memphis, Tenn. Brothers; William A. Brown, Alderson W. Va., P. N. Brown, Meadow Creek, W. Va., J. Alger Brown, Staunton, Va., David Brown, Martinsburg, W. Va.

Funeral services were held at the home on the afternoon of August 31. The writer was in charge of the services and was assisted by J. E. Wells, Roy McCusky, Arthur Lazenby, Ralph C. Brown, F. S. Townsend, together with a number of the members of the Conference who furnished the singing.

CLAUDE E. GOODWIN.

MRS. J. W. BEDFORD

Mrs. Mary Catherine Furlow Bedford was born April 5, 1850, in Allegheny County, Maryland, and passed on to her reward March 10, 1932. She was the daughter of James W. and Mary Furlow, and was one of nine children, only one of whom survives, Mrs. Jenny Skelly, of Oldtown, Maryland. Other survivors are her husband, Dr. J. W. Bedford, a retired minister of the West Virginia Conference, and a number of nephews and nieces. An adopted son, James A. Garfield, preceded her in death in 1918.

Mrs. Bedford was converted in her youth, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Pine Hills, Maryland.

On August 8, 1871, she was united in marriage to J. W. Bedford. Immediately following her marriage, her husband entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Approximately all of her married life was spent as a minister's wife, which position she filled courageously.

Her illness covered a period of four years, but she remained active until March 27, 1931, when she suffered a relapse, from which she was confined to her bed until her demise. Her interest in the work of the Lord's kingdom never abated. Her trust in the Lord was steadfast, and her testimony was, "I am ready." She bore her suffering patiently and with fortitude, and when the angelic messenger came with the notice of her transfer, she received it with a smile, and took her departure to the "home of the soul."

Funeral services were conducted from First Church, Parsons, W. Va., by the writer and Dr. S. B. Hart, of Elkins. Interment was made in the Parsons Cemetery

R. G. YOAK.

MRS. ELLEN F. SHARPES

Ellen Francis Rexroad was born March 12, 1845 and died August 19, 1932. She was the eldest daughter of Thomas and Sarah Rexroad. She was married to the Rev. W. J. Sharpes, October 11, 1866. To this union were born four children, only one of whom is living, Mrs. Lillie S. Ridenour, Buckhannon, W. Va.

Mrs. Sharpes was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for seventy-five years. She became a member of the Woman's Foreign Missionary in the year 1876. She was a worker in the Woman's Christian Temperance Union for more than forty years. She served with her husband for thirty-five years, churches in the West Virginia Conference. Then came the days of retirement, when they enjoyed the rest which both so much deserved. Sister Sharpes was practically an invalid the last years of her life, but enjoyed victorious life until the end. She was quiet and undemonstrative in her Christian experience, but knew Him whom she had believed. And so on the evening of August 19, 1932, she quietly came to the end of her earthly pilgrimage of 87 years.

The surviving members of her family are one daughter, two grand children and two great grand children.

The funeral service was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs.

Lillie S. Ridenour, conducted by the writer assisted by Dr. Frank S. Townsend and the Rev. Eugene Weaver.

CLAUDE E. GOODWIN.

MRS DANIEL C. HEDRICK

Mrs. Mary Martha Hedrick, widow of Rev. Daniel C. Hedrick, passed to her coronation, May 18, 1932, at Cleveland, Tennessee, while visiting a friend, after only two days serious illness.

Mrs. Hedrick was born Dec. 11, 1858, in Lewisburg, W. Va. She was a step-daughter of the well known Albert G. Williams.

She accepted Christ in early childhood and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

She was married on May 16, 1877, to the Rev. Daniel C. Hedrick, who departed this life in 1924. From that time she made her home with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Williams Dye, now of Athens, Tennessee.

Rev. and Mrs. Hedrick lived economically and invested their savings in annuities in various church enterprises. West Virginia Wesleyan College, West Virginin Annual Conference Retired Ministers' Fund, Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, Board of Foreign Missions, American Bible Society, Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Reserve Pension Fund of the Holston Conference in the aggregate sum of more than forty thousand dollars, the blessings of which will go down the decades.

Her body was laid beside her husband in Buckhannon, W. Va.

WILLIAM M. DYE.

MRS. FLORENCE McKINNEY JONES

Mrs. Florence McKinney Jones, wife of Dr. Samuel Charles Jones, pastor of Andrews Methodist Episcopal Church, Grafton, West Virginia, was called to her reward on Friday morning, September 16, 1932. Mrs. Jones had been in failing health for several years and death came as the result of a long drawn out trouble from diabetes. The end came peacefully after she had rallied from a coma into which she had lapsed for several days.

The deceased was born in Marion County, the daughter of Charles Clark and Francis Abbott McKinney. She was united in marriage to Samuel Charles Jones on November 5, 1898 at Webster Springs. To this union were born two children, Mrs. Elizabeth Flack of Baltimore and S. Lewis Jones of Morgantown.

Mrs. Jones was a woman of fine Christian character. She had faith in God and walked with Him. She loved her Christ and served Him. She was loyal to the Church and worked side by side with her husband for the realization of the Kingdom of God in the hearts of men. Anxious about the spiritual welfare of others; charitable and liberal toward all in need; she has written her love indelibly upon the hearts of all who knew her as a friend and neighbor. Patient in suffering, sacrificial in spirit; she lived that through her living the world might know a little more mercy and a little more kindness.

A beautiful life is the most valuable legacy that any one can leave behind and Sister Jones has left this legacy.

"It is in loving not in being loved,

The heart is blessed;

It is in giving, not in seeking gifts,

We find our quests;

Whatever be thy longing or thy need,

That do thou give.

So shalt thy soul be fed, and thou indeed,

Shalt truly live."

Death is the sunset at the end of a beautiful day when it comes as it has come to Mrs. Jones. The future is assured, the present is complete. She lived her life, finished her work, and saw the fruits of her labors in her children. She was waiting for the call when it came. Surely such a life is glorious and such a death victorious. Browning was right when he wrote.

"Grow old along with me;

The best is yet to be,

The last of life, for which the first was made;

Our times are in His hand

Who saith "a whole I planned,"

Youth shows but half; trust God: see all,

Nor be afraid."

JOHN L. WOLFE.

JAMES R. BASKET

On Thursday evening, Jan. 28, just before the weekly prayer meeting, word was received that Rev. James R. Basket, who had formerly been connected with the West Virginia Conference, had passed away at the old Phillips homestead at South Hammond, where he had resided for the last four years.

Rev. Basket was born on July 11, 1871, near Greeneville, Tenn., the son of Margaret and John Basket. He was converted at an early age about three years later was called to preach. He was graduated from the Greeneville and Tusculum College in Eastern Tenn., and entered the Methodist Episcopal Ministry in 1901. He was connected with various charges in the Gulf Mission Conference of Louisiana and Texas for fourteen years, the latter part of which he served in the capacity of District Superintendent. Following this, he accepted an appointment in the West Virginia Conference, continuing in this conference for a period of twelve years, his last charge being at Clarksburg, W. Va., where he remained until May, 1928, whence he came North on account of his failing health to recuperate at the childhood home of his wife.

Rev. Basket had been united in marriage on Dec. 23, 1902, in the city of New Orleans, La., to Miss Mary S. Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glyndon S. Phillips, of South Hammond, N. Y. Mr. Basket was a firm believer in the Wesleyan doctrine of entire sanctification, which he both preached and lived. The salvation of precious souls was the greatest passion of his heart. He took his mission very seriously and this, adding to the strain of his many duties, caused him to suffer a nervous breakdown, and forced him into retirement. About four years ago he and his wife came here for a brief period of relaxation with the firm intention of returning to his duties in the fall. Contrary to his expectation his general health did not show the desired improvement and he remained here until his passing last Thursday.

Mrs. Basket is a graduate of the Crane Normal Institute of Music in Potsdam, N. Y., and was engaged as a teacher of music in Greeneville and Tusculum College when she met Mr. Basket. Surviving are his widow, a half-sister and three half-brothers.

At the funeral services which was held on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 31, a quartet rendered, "There is a Fountain Filled With Blood," and "Sometime We'll Understand," the first number being Mr. Basket's favorite hymn, and being sung at his request. Rev. Erwin D. Bennett, pastor of the Hammond Methodist E. Church, and a recent graduate of Asbury College, preached the funeral service, and read the committal service at the grave in Rarick cemetery at South Hammond, N. Y.

IN MEMORIAM

XIII. OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE WEST VIRGINIA LAY CONFERENCE

Moundsville, W. Va., September, 24, 1932.

The delegates to the 1932 Lay Conference of West Virginia, were called to order in the First Presbyterian Church, Moundsville, W. Va., at 7:30 P. M., Thursday, September 22, 1932, by Harvey W. Harmer, President of the Eighteenth Lay Electoral Conference.

President Harmer then read a letter from District Superintendent J. W. Engle, advising that under recent legislation by the General Conference it would be necessary to call a meeting of the Lay Conference on this date, to be composed of delegates and reserves elected for the Lay Electoral Conference of 1931, and in pursuance of which notice a call for said meeting was issued by President Harmer on July 25, 1932, and sent to all delegates.

After prayer by Chas. W. Evans, of First Church, Fairmont, the roll of delegates was called by Roy Reger, Secretary of the Eighteenth Lay Electoral Conference.

During the roll call, a motion was made by R. E. Hughes, of Sixth Street Church, Charleston, that all delegates and reserves presenting credentials of election to fill vacancies be seated as members of this conference, which motion was carried.

There being no further business to come before this session, the Conference adjourned to meet at 9:30 A. M., Friday, September 23, 1932.

FRIDAY SESSION

Pursuant to adjournment, the Conference met in the First Presbyterian Church at 9:30 A. M.

On motion of Chas. H. Hartley, of Highland Park Church, Morgantown, the Secretary was instructed to send a letter of thanks to the pastor and officials of the First Presbyterian Church for the use of their church.

A collection was taken to defray expenses for postage and stationery, and to help pay costs of printing the minutes, which collection amounted to $15.05.

The Conference then proceeded in a body to the First Methodist Episcopal Church, where at 10:00 A. M., it joined the Annual Conference for the united sessions provided for by the amendment adopted by the General Conference.

ROY REGER,
Secretary.

INVESTMENT — IN MEN — THE MINISTER

There may be a beautiful church building, with a powerful and most beautiful organ, but these avail but little until the voice of the preacher is heard. He may be an Amos with a prophesy of Righteousness in the name of the Lord. He may be beseeching his people to present their lives a living sacrifice, "holy acceptable unto God." He may be consoling the bereaved. But he is ever lifting up the Christ. He is the most necessary man in your community.

Mr. H. C. Berger, with the Aetna Life Insurance Company, writes "All the success of modern civilization can be attributed to the sacrificial services of the preachers of the Gospel. For this reason I am heartily in favor of a fund which will reasonably supply the needs of the retired ministers and encourage high-grade young men to enter the Ministry."

ANNUITY BONDS OR GUARANTEED LIFE INCOME BONDS

A Life Annuity Bond of the Permanent Trust Fund Association of the West Virginia Conference provides that upon the payment of a sum of money to the said Fund, the Permanent Fund agrees to pay the Annuitant certain amounts during his life. This Contract may be made to cover two lives. For example: If a man, 70 years of age, should purchase a bond for $5,000.00, the fund would pay him 7 per cent or $350.00 annually during his life in semi-annual installments of $175.00 each. At his death payments cease. When the absence of income and inheritance tax are considered, this makes a safe and efficient provision for old age income and avoids the hazard of bad investments.

Permanent Trust Fund Bonds are the BEST INVESTMENTS today because they are perfectly safe investments, because they are not taxable, because the older the person is when the bond is purchased the larger the annuity is paid, because Annuity Bonds may be purchased in any amount, and because Annuity is paid Semi-annually.

I. CONFERENCE ROLL AND RECORD

IMPORTANT NOTICE—In this Conference Roll and Record the following abbreviations are used: Pr. for Probationer; E. for Effective; Sn. for Supernumery; Rt. for Retired; Cred. for Admitted on Credentials.

"Non-Annuity Years" include (1) all years "On Trial" in excess of two; (2) Years Withdrawn; (3) Years Located; (4) Years Supernumerary; (5) Years Retired. In the case of Retired Members, the Non-Annuity Years are those charged at the time of Retirement. To find the year of retirement, add to the year of "Admission on Trial" the sum of the Annuity and Non-Annuity Years.

"Annuity Years" are those for which annuity can be allowed by the Conference Board of Stewards. These include the years in the "Effective Relation", which is the number of years from the time of "Admission in Full" to the time of death or final retirement less any Non-Annuity Years. To this, two of the years spent "on Trial" are added to make the "Annuity Years." In the case of persons who come to our Conference by transfer who were admitted in full in a Spring Conference, there may sometimes be allowed an extra "Annuity Year" for the extra half year. Such cases are indicated by a "over the year of admission."

Years "Preached in Other Churches" cannot be counted as "Annuity Years," although due consideration will be given this fact by the Board in the administering of the Necessitous Funds.

Every member of the Conference is urged to examine his record, and should there be any error, write the secretary.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE MINUTES

RESOLUTIONS concerning the publication of the Annual Conference minutes or the "Official Record and Year Book of the West Virginia Annual Conference."

WHEREAS: For several years a number of our ministers have neglected to pay their assessments to the minute fund and there has accumulated a debt against this fund which has become an embarrassment to the Conference, therefore be it resolved:

FIRST: That a committee of seven traveling preachers to be known as "The Committee on Annual Conference Minutes" be raised early in the sessions of each Annual Conference. This committee shall be composed of the Secretary of the Conference, and six others, to be nominated by the Cabinet and elected by the Conference. The Committee shall organize at the Annual Conference at which elected by the selection of a Chairman, Vice Chairman and Treasurer, the Secretary of the Conference becoming ex officio Secretary of the Committee. The Committee shall have charge of all Minute Fund moneys, be responsible for the publication of the minutes, and make an Annual Report to the Conference the same to be published in the Minutes.

SECOND: That each full member of the Conference in the active relation be assessed $3.00 annually and each member on trial and supply $2.50 annually for this fund, assessments to be due and payable in advance at the seat of the Annual Conference. The published price of the Minutes shall be 50 cents per copy. Retired ministers shall be permitted to order single copies at one-half price, payable in advance at the seat of the Conference.

THIRD: The Conference Secretary shall be the Editor of the Annual Conference Minutes and shall so condense the material as not to require above One Hundred Twenty-five (125) pages, exclusive of advertising matter.

FOURTH: Out of the total annual receipts the committee shall pay such overhead expenses as may be incurred and set aside not less than 10 per cent nor more than 20 per cent of the total receipts to be applied on debts, provided however, that this provision shall not apply to the Paragon Printing debt, nor release any Charge from the obligation to pay the assessment made at the Annual Conference of 1932 to apply on said debt. The Committee shall use the balance of cash on hand to publish as many copies of the Minutes as the same will pay for and from the number published fill the orders for single copies and send the remainder on a pro rata basis to the Ministers who have paid their assessments cash in advance.

Signed,

"Resolution: In the face of the facts and figures presented in the report of the President of the College, this Conference cannot do less than it agreed to do last year. We should do more. Resolved, therefore, that as ministers and laymen we put ourselves enthusiastically into the plans agreed upon by the Board of Trustees and outlined in the President's report: That we assist in every possible way in the bond sale campaign. It should not be an overwhelming difficulty to dispose of these bonds among the Methodists of the Conference.

That we approve the program indicated in Bishop's Day at the College, October 5, and that we shall not only try to be present ourselves, but secure the attendance of many of our laymen and their families.

That we lend every reasonable effort in securing students from our charges."

On motion the Bishop was requested to appoint J. E. Hanifan Vice-President of West Virginia Wesleyan College. On motion of J. B. Workman, the Conference authorized a bond sale of $100,000 for West Virginia Wesleyan College. Bishop Leonard addressed the Conference in the interest of this institution.

Presiding Bishop.

EVENING SERVICE—H. C. Howard presided. The address was delivered by W. E. Hammaker, D. D., of Youngstown, Ohio, on the theme "The Church and the World Problem."

CLOSING SESSION—Following the Evening Service the Conference was convened by Bishop Leonard to hear the reading of the Appointments and to consider the final matters before the Conference. The Committee on the Examination of the Journal reported and the Minutes for the sessions held on Saturday were approved. On motion the expenses of the Committee on Pro-Rating were ordered paid by the treasurer. On motion by H. D. Ketcham it was ordered that the plan of entertainment be changed so that no transportation cost shall be paid, but each Minister member of the Conference and Supply, and the candidates for admission shall be entertained the entire Conference session, including lodging and meals, and each lay delegate shall be entertained two nights and one day. To meet the same and the expense attendant to the operation of the plan an assessment shall be laid upon every charge equal to one per cent of the cash paid to the pastor for the present year. On motion by M. S. Collins, the date for selecting the entertaining Church for the next session of the Conference was made December 1, 1933. The report of the Committee on Resolutions was read and adopted. On motion the relation of W. D. Winters was changed from retired to effective.

APPOINTMENTS READ—Following the singing of Hymn No. 419: "One More Day's Work for Jesus," and prayer by Dr. W. E. Hammaker, Bishop Leonard read the nominations from the Deaconess Board and they were elected. The appointments of the Deaconesses were read which was followed by the reading of the appointments of the Ministers for the ensuing year. The Benediction was pronounced by Bishop Leonard and the Eighty-seventh Annual Session of the West Virginia Conference adjourned.

WE HEREBY CERTIFY: That the foregoing is a correct record of the proceedings of the Eighty-seventh Session of the West Virginia Conference.

ADNA WRIGHT LEONARD,

President.

W. S. PATTERSON,

Secretary.

IX. REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' REPORT

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

Our fathers used to sing in an hour like this—

“And are we yet alive,
And see each other's face?
What troubles we have seen,
What conflicts we have passed,
Fightings without and fears within,
Since we assembled last!”

I do not think that our mete of stress has equalled theirs, but a wise Character Builder has not lifted all the struggle from our lives. Death has walked with us through the year claiming a number from our ranks. They have ceased traveling the mysteries of mortality and have gone to be with their beloved dead and all the redeemed of the Lord, in the presence of our common Father.

Bishop Leonard's visit to our Districts in the beginning of the year was a great blessing and inspiration. All who heard him were deeply impressed by his messages.

The Area program, as worked out by our Area Council, has been presented at our District Conferences, Sub-District Conferences, Quarterly Conferences and Official Board meetings. We bespeak for this program during the second year a larger adoption and a more complete working out in detail which will bring a unanimity of effort and activity.

The seventeenth annual Epworth League Institute was held at Buckhannon in August. Sixty-four more than last year were registered this year, making a total of 249. Fifty-eight churches of the Conference were represented; Wheeling District led with 119 present.

West Virginia Wesleyan College has had a good year in every respect, except for financial difficulties due to industrial conditions throughout the country.

For several years we have worked among the students at the State University through our Wesley Foundation. The church of the future will be in a large measure the kind of church which our College and University students make it.

A substantial increase in Standard Training Schools and Daily Vacation Schools is reported. Coaching conferences have been continued this year and we now have eighty-three accredited standard instructors.

New churches are under construction at Broad Oaks, Clarksburg, Arnett, Marsh Fork Charge and Pine Grove of New Hope Charge. More than 100 churches and parsonages report improvements at a cost of many thousand dollars.

The deferring of payments to the last hours of the conference year make it impossible to give the exact amount paid to World Service.

The year has been particularly difficult because of the financial stringency which has been felt on every charge. In addition to the industrial and financial conditions in many places the situation has been further aggravated by the waning of spiritual life. The best antidote we know to avoid the hectic fever we have just experienced in closing the year is the earnest, skillful teaching of stewardship, plus the financial plan of the Discipline, monthly and quarterly enforced by good stewards who take their duties seriously.

There have been few personal references and commendations in this report; time and space have been short, but if the Superintendents might speak their hearts, they would tax the limits of their speech in honest commendation of these workmen of the Kingdom.

"All honor to the preacher man,
The earnest son of grace;
The hero of God's Holy Plan,
The monarch of His race."

Respectfully submitted,

J. C. BUCKLEY, District Superintendent,
Charleston District

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY
of the

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

In presenting my third report of the Permanent Trust Fund

Association I do so in the spirit of an abbreviated Conference session. I present it also with a high sense of appreciation of the heroes of the cross and the noble women who have wrought by the side of their faithful husbands.

The Board of Conference Claimants is Methodism's youngest institution. In 1878 Rev. John S. Smart led the fight to have the proceeds of the Book Concern go to the support of the Claimants as originally intended. In 1896 the Cleveland General Conference put retirement on a self-respecting basis, years of service instead of penury. In 1908 pro-rating of Ministerial support was ordered. Much of all this has been forgotten or neglected. A letter from the pen of Dr. D. C. Pickens reveals that "at our last Conference session it was reported that Pastors' salaries were deficient 21%, District Superintendents' 25%, Episcopal Fund 45%, Conference Claimants 51%." I offer a plea for a square deal. A year ago the names of 72 ministers, 62 widows, and 16 children made up the roster of our Conference Claimants. These lift up their voices in the language of the Psalmist and say, "Cast us not off in the time of old age."

Since our last Conference the following have answered the roll call of the skies: E. C. Bedford, Fred Cottrill, A. J. L. Curtis, J. J. Deck, C. J. Price, W. D. Reed, A. M. Crabtree, I. N. Smith, A. W. Miller, Mrs. L. E. Resseger, Mrs. J. E. Scott, Mrs. John Shordan, Mrs. C. G. Stater, Mrs. John H. Hess, Mrs. Gilbert Rogers, Mrs. D. B. Orr, Mrs. H. K. Riffe, Miss Frances Kruger.

It has not been a good year for two reasons. First, the depression. Second, because some churches and pastors have not allowed the cause to be presented to the people. However we have a net increase of $4,466 plus a $500 estate note. In addition I believe that our interest in the estate of Mrs. Dora Jamison will amount to at least $10,000. See audit for total receipts and disbursements. The resolution adopted last year providing for an offering from each and every church should be better carried out. A few have done well. I must say that a large part of our failures have been a lack of cooperation on the part of our pastors.

Our nation pensions soldiers who risk their lives for their country. Can the Church do less for those who give their lives for Kingdom building? May Divine Guidance be ours to finish this well begun task.

I am profoundly grateful to almighty God for His unbounded goodness and mercies throughout the year. Thanks be to God Who giveth us the victory.

W. M. SHULTZ,
Executive Secretary.

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMISSION

The Finance Commission met in regular session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 23, 1933, with John Beddow, president, presiding.

The treasurer, Charles W. Evans, reported that each District Superintendent had received $3,325.00, and the Commission recommended that 9 per cent of the pastor's cash salary be the apportionment for the support of the District Superintendents for the ensuing year.

JOHN L. WOLFE, Secretary

REPORT OF WORLD SERVICE COMMISSION OF THE WEST VIRGINIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE TO THE SESSION OF 1933.

The Commission looks with favor upon the reduced apportionment sent out by the World Service Commission to the entire church, which seems to be in accord with the financial conditions facing the Church and Country.

We recommend the acceptance of the apportionment of the West Virginia Annual Conference at a minimum figure of $57,227. The same to be apportioned district by district to the Charges of the Conference. This figure, considerably less than the apportionment of one year ago, is more than the contribution of the past year. The total apportionment for the whole Church is $4,500,000 as against $7,000,000 a year ago. The giving, however, of the last World Service year is $3,537,887, or nearly a million below this year's asking. It must be kept in mind that the apportionment for this year should be regarded as a minimum total to be raised in Conference Year 1933-1934.

We commend the pamphlet distributed to our preachers by the World Service Treasury entitled, "Concerning Designated Gifts," and urge all our Churches to follow the suggestions, (1) The Major Portion of World Service giving should be left undesignated or designated within the ratios. (2) The Boards are permitted to accept designated gifts only when made in strict compliance with the provisions of the Discipline. (3) World Service money given undesignated by the donors may not later be designated by any official or body. (4) A Certificate to be signed by the remitter required for World Service credit.

We cannot fail to be concerned about the danger which faces our Missionary and other Benevolent Boards at this time of financial loss. We wish to stress with due emphasis the importance of observance of October as Missionary Month in every Church and Sunday School, with special attention to October 15th as Missionary day. We commend the full use of the free literature provided by the Mission Boards for these occasions. The reduction of World Service income from $8,507,000 or $2.16 per member in 1925, to $3,537,000 or 91c per member in 1933, is one of the most serious conditions in Methodism. The Mission Boards, Home and Foreign, close their fiscal year October 31st. Only a heroic response throughout our entire connection with liberal offerings reported by October 31st can prevent a collapse of Methodism's Missionary Enterprise. Other Conferences are responding to the emergency. As a Conference we pledge loyalty.

HEBER D. KETCHAM, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Relating to Wesley Foundation and Director of Religious Education.

After consultation with representatives from all the interests involved, we recommend:

1. That the work of Wesley Foundation and Conference program of religious education be combined, and,
2. Request the appointment of Rev. A. Coleman Brown as Director of the Wesley Foundation and Conference Director of Religious Education.
3. That there be a small administrative committee composed of persons adjacent to headquarters of Wesley Foundation which will cooperate with the Director in preparation and administration of the joint program, subject to review by the Conference Board of Education, as follows:— Robert Armstrong, S. W. Bell, S. Clark Jones, M. C. Miles, and chairman of Conference Board of Education, H. E. Wark, the Superintendent of Morgantown District, John L. Wolfe and Director A. Coleman Brown, ex-officio members.

The budget to be provided as follows: 1. A generous Rally Day offering to be taken in and remitted from every local church. (See Dis. 461.7). (2) $1200.00 of World Service giving to be designated by local churches. (3) In addition to the above, payment by each charge the assessment ordered by the Annual Conference. (See following report.)

Report of Division of Institutions.

We recommend that all charges paying a pastoral salary of $1200.00 or less be assessed $2.00 and all churches paying more than $1200.00 be assessed $5.00 for the support of Wesley Foundation. This shall be an Annual Conference Benevolence and vouchers be given for all money contributed.

Trustees elected to Wesley Foundation for term of four years: H. D. Ketcham, C. W. Evans, S. C. Jones, George Farmer and W. S. Patterson.

West Virginia Wesleyan College

We recommend that the Conference Educational Collection must be taken on every charge, and a sincere effort to meet the fifty-cent per member asking, that the $1320 in designated gifts be provided for immediately and that the matter of interesting students in Wesleyan be a matter of major importance for every pastor.

Trustees elected for a term of four years as follows: Mr. Lawrence Lynch, Mr. H. Roy Waugh, Mrs. Myrtle Fletcher, Rev. B. T. Trevy, Rev. J. B. Workman, Judge A. J. Hughes, Mr. A. F. McCue.

COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH

We deeply deplore the fact that economic depression has created in many of our churches an atmosphere of discouragement, followed by a tendency to lower moral and spiritual standards for the sake of economic recovery.

This condition calls the church to do her utmost to reach the following ends:

1. To reestablish the prayer life among all our people.
2. To so awaken the moral conscience that the mercenary spirit will lose its foothold.
3. In the rising tide of self-indulgences to abstain as Christians from the very appearance of evil.
4. To encourage the unfortunate of our congregations by ministering to their bodies as well as their souls.
5. To build into the hearts of our people burning convictions as to their duty to spend the Lord's day in the Sanctuary and in prayer and spiritual meditation.
6. To give ourselves in prayer and self-surrender to our Lord to the end that there come among us, preachers and people, a revival of pure religion that will lift the whole church in faith and practice to the New Testament standard of experience and life.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS M. ZUMBRUNNEN, Secretary.
J. E. WELLS, Chairman

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

War is a world menace. There never was a time its devastating effects were as great as they would be in another World War. The nations are more closely related. It is the candid conviction of thoughtful men that another world war would destroy our civilization. The danger is very real. The situation in the Far East in Germany, in Spain, in Russia, Poland, the Balkans, and other places are such that an outbreak may occur any time.

We, of the United States are so vitally related to all the world, that we must of necessity be interested in world peace. We have the population, the resources, the strategic location that must make our influence increasingly powerful. We believe the following things are absolutely necessary: (a) We must take our place in the World Court. We urge President Roosevelt to speak out expressing his approval of our adherence to the World Court and pledging his influence to that end. (b) We assure the President and our Delegation at the Disarmament Conference of our appreciation of their work and our prayer for a propitious outcome. However we earnestly protest against the immense sums of money proposed for Armaments, expressly the large increase in our Navy. It wastes money, tends to increase the war spirit in our own country, and causes the rest of the world to doubt our sincerity. (c) We believe the time has come for a reopening of the question of our relation to the League of Nations.

The church must take her stand as everlastingly opposed to war. Whatever justifications there may have been in other days, the time has come when all war must be stamped as sin against God and humanity. The churches can by education create the mind to peace and we urge our pastors and people to cooperate in every way to this end.

ROBERT BAGNELL, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE

We believe the American people are at present the victim of a skillful, extended and corrupt propaganda to lower and debauch the moral standard of our nation. We regret that our national and state governments seem to be given over to this policy. We condemn the false attitude of the wet press of our country. We fully believe that the traffic in beer is a present and final injury to the morals of our citizens. We do not believe that there can be any personal liberty that brings poverty, grief and trouble to others. We commend the work and influence of the Anti-Saloon League and of the W. C. T. U.

Finally, we urge all people who stand for God and righteousness to stand for national and state prohibition, and by education and example to teach temperance to the oncoming generations.

EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY

The Sixth Annual Session of the Western Virginia Conference; 1853

Continuing a resume of the first six annual sessions of our Conference, the minutes of which were never printed, we take up the sixth held in 1853 at Weston, with Bishop Osmon C. Baker as presiding bishop. Alexander Martin was re-elected secretary. Admitted in full connection: George W. Arnold, Silas Burns, Cyrus Morey, Lawson A. Smith, Samuel Steele, John A. Totten, Mordicai D. Vaughn, R. L. Woodyard. Ordained elders: Richard Cartwright, Ashford Hall, Wilson L. Hindman, Henry Stevens, John Talbott, Timothy B. Taylor. Ordained deacons: Silas Burns, Cyrus Morey, Lawson A. Smith, Samuel Steele, John A. Totten, R. L. Woodyard. Admitted on trial: Richard A. Arthur, James T. Carroll, Charles A. Cook, Abraham R. Crislip, B. Hardman, William R. Howe, Beacham G. Hull, A. Laughridge, Eli H. McLaughlin, Richard Northcraft, Isaac M. O'Flyng, H. C. Sanford, Wesley Smith, Thomas H. Trainor. William Sexsmith was located at his own request.

The highest salary paid for the year was $647.00 and the lowest $40.00. Glowing reports were made concerning the North Western Virginia Academy at Clarksburg, and Nathan Goff, Treasurer of the Board, given credit for financial assistance. The return of President A. Martin was requested. The Conference was requested to heartily cooperate in increasing the student body, which cooperation was emphatically pledged in formal resolutions. The Female Seminary at Wellsburg also was endorsed.

A report by the Committee on the Bethel cause recommending the Western Seaman's Friend Society was adopted. Deepest interest in temperance was urged but no plan outlined. The slogan "A Sunday School in Every Appointment Open the Year Around" was adopted. Libraries for Sunday Schools and the services of the Tract Society, Colporteurs and agents of the American Bible Society were endorsed. In recommending the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate it was asserted in the Committee's report that "two additional columns of advertisements would not diminish the number of subscribers, and that the character of ministers would not be passed if they had not discharged their duty as agents of that paper. The deficit on that publication was $1,799.57. The General Conference course of study for local preachers was adopted.

A camp meeting in the "tented grove" near Elizabethtown (Moundsville) was announced, beginning August 17, 1853, and the quarterly conference of Elizabeth Station and Grove Creek Circuit to be held during the meeting.

Rev. F. S. DeHass appointed agent for the American and Foreign Christian Union and co-operation pledge him. An appeal was made for financial help in the erection of a "new house of worship" (Metropolitan Church) signed by all the bishops.

The prosecution of charges of falsehood and fraud against B. F. Sedwick in connection with the sale of a slave was dropped upon the withdrawal of said Sedwick "under charges of immorality." He affiliated with the M. E. Church, South.

The total membership in 1853 was as follows: White, 14,772; colored, 355; probationers, 3,198; local preachers, 157; total, 18,482. Total benevolences, $1,940.96.

Respectfully submitted,

The Conference Committee on Methodist History,
WM. BURDETTE MATHEWS,
Chairman.

CERTIFICATE OF SECRETARY

I certify that the above Financial and Statistical Report, together with the supporting data on Forms 5, 6, and 7 accompanying, has been carefully prepared and compared.

WESLEY WOODRUFF,
 Secretary.

PRO-RATING COMMITTEE

In consideration that last year the deficits in ministerial support were 21% for Pastors, 26% for District Superintendents, 47% for Episcopal Fund and 52% for Retired Ministers and in consideration of written and oral reports from a large number of ministers, we desire to make the following recommendations:

1. That every pastor institute a campaign of education in the law, organization and work of the Church, that budgets be formulated according to law, that the term "Ministerial Support" be understood to include the claims for Pastor, District Superintendents, Episcopal Fund, and Conference Claimants, and that the expression "An amount equal to a certain percentage of the Pastor's claim" be used in referring to the latter three claims. The pastor is the key man and must accept the responsibility in educating the people and thus correcting the present conditions.

2. That the District Superintendents keep the matter of pro-rating the claims before the officials by inquiring into the accounts at each Quarterly Conference.

3. That the Conference insist that every member put forth every effort to have his Church officials distribute the Church income according to the pro-rating provisions of the Discipline.

4. That the Conference insist that pastors serving charges where they are supported in whole or in part by other than regular church organizations are morally bound to distribute the total received among the various items listed under ministerial support.

5. That every pastor keep in mind that he will some day, most likely, be a beneficiary of the Conference claimant fund.

6. That the matter of pro-rating be kept before the Conference until all come to the light, that a similar committee be appointed for next year, and that the committee establish and keep on file an up to date and accurate record of the pro-rating of the Conference members.

DENVER C. PICKENS, Chairman.

ANSON MARSENA CRABTREE

Rev. Anson Marsena Crabtree was born May 26, 1869 in Bland County, Virginia and died May 23, 1933, at Parkersburg, W. Va., where he was pastor of the Wayside Church. He received his college education at Athens, Tenn., and graduated from the Theological department of Grant University in Chattanooga, May 9, 1899. On May 10, 1899 he was united in marriage to Miss Cora M. Catlin of Chattanooga. Together they came to their first work in the Virginia Conference near Staunton. He continued in the Virginia Conference for seven and one-half years until the dissolving of the same and the uniting of Greenbriar District with the West Virginia Conference. In this conference he served until the time of his death.

Born of Christian parents, converted at fifteen, five years later he answered the call to the ministry. To this calling he was faithful, carrying a passion for souls to the end.

Funeral services were conducted at the Parkersburg Wayside Church, and at First Church, Huntington, with Rev. W. B. King, in charge. Rev. E. J. Westfall delivered the sermon, with Rev. O. M. Pullen and others paying short tributes. Interment took place at Spring Hill Cemetery, Huntington, W. Va.

AMOS W. MILLER

The Rev. Amos W. Miller, son of Christian J. and Mary Shrock Miller, was born at Eglon, West Va., June 1, 1878.

In 1897 he was married to Hattie J. Johnson, daughter of Cornelius and Catherine Johnson, of Garrett county, Md. To this union seven children were born, only two of whom with the widow survive, Ralph Curtis Miller and Mrs. Lottie Gertrude Harbert. After preaching three years as a supply, he was admitted into the West Virginia conference on trial in 1917, and in 1919 into full membership. He was a most active and faithful toiler in the Master's vineyard, built churches and parsonages, wiped out debts, increased the membership, and invariably left the charge in better condition than he found it.

Funeral services were conducted in Smithfield church by Dr. James W. Engle, assisted by several ministers. Interment was made in the Greenlawn cemetery at Clarksburg.

ELIAS CAMBRIDGE BEDFORD

Rev. Elias Cambridge Bedford was born near Breezewood, Pa., July 29, 1855, and died Dec. 1, 1932, at his home in Beverly, W. Va. He was married to Miss Sophia Weist, Oct. 31, 1878. To this union were born two children, Mrs. Barbara Jennings, and Joseph Bedford. He entered the West Virginia Conference in 1895, and served for twenty-seven years, retiring in 1922. He was a man of sterling character, a true preacher of the Gospel of Christ.

The funeral services were conducted at Beverly and Kerens, W. Va. by O. E. Elkins, assisted by S. B. Hart, C. J. Allender, R. G. Yoak. Interment was made in the Kerens Cemetery.

A. J. L. CURTIS

Rev. A. J. L. Curtis, who died May 19, 1933 at Barrackville, W. Va., was born March 14, 1861, in Roane County. He joined the W. Va. Conference in 1890, and served thirty-six years in the effective relation, serving eighteen charges in the Conference.

He was united in marriage to Sarah Rebecca Parks, in 1891. Five children blest this home: Elsie May Linard, Willard Foss Curtis, Harland K., Ava F. West and Orin D. of Jane Lew, who carries on the work of his father in the ministry.

Funeral services were held at Barrackville, conducted by Rev. H. W. Flanigan, assisted by Dr. J. E. Scott and Dr. John L. Wolfe.

WILLIAM DELMAR REED

Rev. William D. Reed was born in Lewis County near Weston on May 7, 1876, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi D. Reed. He entered the ministry of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1898. After serving several charges among which were Moundsville and Cameron, he was appointed District Superintendent of Oakland District. He later served Andrews Church, Grafton, and Diamond Street, Fairmont, from which church Dr. Reed took the retired relation.

While not in active relationship, he yet rendered great service to the Kingdom, and for a number of years taught the Men's Class of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Fairmont.

Dr. Reed was greatly respected and honored by the members of the West Virginia Conference. He was twice elected to represent the Conference at its General assembly. He was also appointed as delegate to the World Church Conference in London, England. The funeral services which were held in First church, Fairmont testify to the high esteem in which Dr. Reed was held. Drs. James E. Scott and Archibald Moore delivered the addresses. Drs. Harry Howard, H. D. Ketcham and J. L. Wolfe took part in the service. The church was filled to its capacity by those who came to pay their last tribute of respect to this servant of God.

Dr. W. D. Reed is survived by his wife Mrs. Attie B. Reed, his daughter Ruth Reed Board, his sons F. Dale and William A. Reed and two grand children, Patricia Ann and William Delmar, children of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Reed.

JAMES J. DECK

Dr. James J. Deck came to Wesleyan in 1901 as teacher of German and Greek. With the exception of 1911-1915, his service to the school was continuous until June 1932, when he retired on account of failing health.

Dr. Deck was born in the Canton of Zurich, Switzerland, January 8, 1861. He pursued his collegiate and graduate studies in the Gymnasium and the University of Zurich, receiving the Doctor of Philosophy degree. At the age of twenty he came to America and studied in the College of St. Francis Xavier in the city of New York. From 1883 to 1900 he was in turn a teacher in Georgetown University and a private tutor in Washington, D. C., and in 1900-1901 teacher of Greek in Taylor University. From Taylor he came to Wesleyan.

His profound scholarship was characterized by great versatility. In the early years of his connection with the College, Dr. Deck not only made professional sacrifice along with others of his fellow teachers, but he amazed all who observed him by his ready knowledge of subjects quite outside his specialty. He was a remarkable personality, and how well do we find the highest ideals exemplified in him, whose versatility excited the admiration of his fellow teachers, and whose place in the affections of his students is attested by their respectful application to him of the endearing name, "Daddy"!

CHAS. J. PRICE

Rev. Charles J. Price, who died in Cumberland, Maryland, Nov. 26, 1932, was born in Harpers Ferry, W. Va., June 9, 1866. He graduated from Dickinson Seminary, and in 1880 joined the West Virginia Conference. From that time until his death with the exception of a year in the Baltimore Conference, he was a member of this Conference. In 1879 he married Anna Virginia Haugh. Eight children were born to this union, six of whom still live. He knew the ruggedness of the rural fields, for most of his ministry was spent in that field.

Funeral services were conducted in Cumberland, Maryland, by Rev. Harry Evaul, and Rev. H. C. Smith, and the interment made in Greenmount Cemetery.

ISAAC NEWTON SMITH

Rev. Isaac Newton Smith, son of Isaac and Martha Smith, was born in Roane County, West Virginia, Dec. 20, 1878, and died June 10, 1933. He was married to Miss Esta Keffer. To this union ten children were born, Maurice, Beddow, Glen, Paul, Virgil, John, Carl, Roy, Irene and Nellie. For 27 years he was a member of the West Virginia conference, serving seven charges, two of these a second time. In 1932 he took the retired relation, locating on a farm in Jackson County, later coming to Parkersburg for medical treatment where he died.

His funeral services were held at Mt. Moriah church near Parkersburg, the last rites being participated in by Dr. H. D. Ketcham, Dr. W. B. King, Rev. H. K. Riffe and Dr. J. E. Wells.

FRED COTTRILL

Rev. Fred Cottrill, son of Mortimore and Sarah Cottrill, was born in Harrison County, West Virginia, Dec. 9, 1859, and died Feb. 19, 1933. He was united in marriage to Mattie Hennen, in 1884. Their children were Charley Cottrill, deceased; Mrs. Leona Blackshire, Mrs. Maud Linger, Mrs. Bessie Moyer, Frank Cottrill, Mrs. Bulah Stonestreet, Harry Cottrill, Brooks Cottrill, and Mrs. Bonnie Shiflett. The first Mrs. Cottrill died, and he was married to Mrs. Rosa Miller Conrad.

He entered the ministry at the age of eighteen and was a fully ordained minister for more than fifty years, and served the following churches during his active ministry, Jollytown, Beverly, Belington, Troy and Copen. He conducted 21 revival meetings in the dusk M. E. Church, which he was very largely instrumental in building. He was a man of influence, a true leader in the church. The funeral services were in charge of the Rev. V. O. Huffman.

MRS. CHARLES G. STATER

Mabel Wingfield Stater, wife of Dr. Charles G. Stater, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Huntington, West Virginia, was born in Ridgway, Pennsylvania, Nov. 20th, 1881. Her parents were Thales U. and Hannah Greene Wingfield.

Mrs. Stater lived a life of exceptional unselfishness and beauty. She loved people and in return was greatly loved irrespective of denominational lines. In one period of her illness a follower of Confucius wrote to Mrs. Stater expressing his hope of her recovery, a Mohammedan brought her flowers, and special prayers were offered for her in the Catholic Church.

While living in Moundsville, Mrs. Stater, with Miss Clara Schroder, and Mrs. A. L. Hooten, founded the Hughes Mission. She was the mother of three children, Paul, who died in infancy, Charles Wingfield and Audrey Maxine.

After having passed through numerous periods of critical illness, Mrs. Stater spent the last two years of her life confined to her bed as a great sufferer, but without a shadow of complaint. She entered the immortal life April 27, 1933. Dr. J. B. Workman, Dr. Harry C. Howard, Dr. Roger Tyler and Dr. P. Y. DeBolt participated in the funeral services in First Church. Interment was made in the Ridglawn Cemetery, Huntington.

MRS. JAMES E. SCOTT

Mrs. Harriet Randall Scott, wife of Dr. J. E. Scott, was born Dec. 4, 1876 at Dipton, County Durham, England, and died April 3, 1933, after a brief illness, at Fairmont, West Virginia. Dr. and Mrs. Scott were married in 1896, came to Fayetteville, Pa. in 1903, and in 1904 to West Virginia.

Born in a typical North-of-England Methodist home and raised in a community which is still proud of its Methodist record, Mrs. Scott very early breathed the atmosphere which made her the devoted, beautiful character which she was. As wife, mother, and hostess, she was alike the willing servant of all.

The funeral services were conducted April 5, in First Church Fairmont. The Ministers participating were: Rev. Wm. Knox, J. L. Wolfe, Roy McCuskey, W. M. Schultz, M. C. Miles and A. H. Robinson. A second service was held in St. Andrews Church, Parkersburg, those sharing in the final rites were: Revs. J. E. Wells, W. B. King, H. D. Ketcham, A. C. Riffe and J. L. Wolfe. The Interment took place at Arlington Cemetery, Parkersburg.

MRS. L. E. RESSEGGER

Mrs. Frances Floyd Ressegger, wife of Dr. L. E. Ressegger, pastor of Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, Moundsville, W. Va., died in Glen Dale Hospital, April 5th, 1933.

Mrs. Ressegger was born near Mannington, W. Va., March 2, 1866, being the daughter of Goulden and Narissa Floyd, and was married to the Rev. L. E. Ressegger, Sept. 15, 1889. To them were born four children, F. G. Ressegger, Moundsville, W. Va., Dr. O. C. Ressegger, Webster Springs, W. Va., Mrs. H. L. Green, Moundsville, W. Va., and Mrs. K. L. Van Horn, Morgantown, W. Va. There was one adopted son, Oscar E. Ressegger of Fairmont, W. Va. For forty-four years, Mrs. Ressegger was a real help mate to her husband in the ministry.

The funeral services was conducted by Dr. James W. Engle, assisted by J. C. Hoffman, W. E. Anderson, Rowland Aspinall and W. W. Beckley, and the Interment was made in Mount Rose Cemetery, Moundsville, W. Va.

MRS. LUCY LANGLY SHORDEN

Mrs. Lucy Langly Shorden, widow of the late Rev. John Shorden, was born January 15, 1864, in Straithers, Yorkshire County, England, and was the daughter of the late James and Mary Wheatman Langly. For twenty-five years Mrs. Shorden and her husband were associated with the work of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and for the last fifteen years with that of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the West Virginia Conference.

Their children who survive are Mrs. Mary Cunningham, of Farmington, Mrs. Arnett Wycoff, of Pruntytown, Mrs. Fred B. Watkins, of Charleston, Mrs. W. O. Thomas, of North Vernon, Ind., John Shorden of Florida and Lester Shorden of Pruntytown.

The funeral esrvices were conducted by Rev. Charles E. Hawkins and the burial was at Grafton.

MRS. JOHN HESS

Phoebe Ann Lynch Hess was born Feb. 26, 1862, in Harrison County, Virginia, (now W. Va.), the daughter of Josiah W. and Agnes V. Lynch. She married the Rev. John H. Hess of West Virginia Conference, October 24, 1878. She came from a Methodist family, and with her husband gave many years of beautiful service to the church. Modest, devoted and true, she endeared herself to all who knew her. She passed to her reward January 17, 1933, from her home in Wheeling, W. Va. She is survived by her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Walter M. Evans, and a son, John Jr., both of Wheeling. A large company of people attended the funeral services in Wheeling, which were conducted by Rev. Jo W. G. Fast, assisted by Rev. Thomas M. Zumbrunnen.

MRS. GILBERT ROGERS

Hester Ann House Rogers, the daughter of John W. and Amanda Dilworth House, was born in Barbour county, W. Va., April 21, 1846, and died Sept. 4, 1933. October 15, 1863 she was united in marriage with Rev. Gilbert Rogers. To this union ten children were born. William C., Ella Valers, Ernest M., Dessie Pearl, Homer, Virgil who preceded her in death, Arthur L., John S., Mrs. Minnie May Dickinson, wife of the Rev. D. Dickinson, of Philippi, Mrs. Mamie Johnson. William C. was a member of the West Virginia Conference at the time of his death.

The funeral services were conducted by Wesley L. Cheuvront, and Rev. C. C. Lambert, of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, at the Mount Vernon church, Barbour County, followed by Interment in the Pleasant Grove cemetery.

MRS. D. B. ORR

Ida Florence Orr, daughter of Eugenius and Rachel Wolfe, was born near Terra Alta, W. Va., and died at Clarksburg, W. Va., January 3, 1933. She was united in marriage to the Rev. D. B. Orr, when nineteen years of age, and for forty-five years faithfully fulfilled her share in the responsibilities of a Methodist minister's home. Eight children blest the home, two sons and six daughters. She was a devoted worker in health; and a patient sufferer in affliction. Through all, "Her sweet, cordial and submissive smile never failed her."

Rev. H. M. Riddle, assisted by Rev. L. S. Grose, and Rev. Loring Howell officiated in the final rites.

MRS. H. K. RIFFE

Mrs. Mary S. Riffe, daughter of Marshall W. and Emily Glaze, was born in Roane County, West Va., March 30, 1861 and died at Parkersburg, Jan. 30, 1933. August 15, 1888, she was united in marriage to H. K. Riffe. To this union were born, Luther B. Riffe,

Mrs. S. R. Goff, Indaola, deceased; Rex R. Riffe, Mrs. M. O. Powers and Mrs. J. C. Rothwell.

Mrs. Riffe was truly a beautiful character, she shunned the crowded highways of life, and truly lived in her "house by the side of the road, and was a friend to man." She had an unusual capacity for the making of friends, but greater still was her ability to keep friendship unbroken to the end. Several hours before her death she seemed to catch a glimpse of the coming glory and described it as beautiful, beautiful." She was greatly loved, and much lamented.

MISS FRANCES KRUGER

Miss Frances Kruger, deaconess at the Scott's Run Settlement for four years, passed away May 27, 1933. Miss Kruger was superintendent of the Kindergarten and director of children's work. The only reward she desired was the development she saw in the lives of the little ones, and the love shining in their faces. Her earthly activities were cut short at the early age of 26.

Miss Kruger is survived by her Mother, three sisters and one brother.

After the roll call the following officers were elected by acclamation:

Harvey W. Harmer	President
Charles W. Evans	Vice-President
Roy Reger	Secretary-Treasurer

The president expressed the thanks of the Conference to the pastor and congregation of St. Paul's church for the use of the church, and to the pianist for her assistance with the music.

A collection, amounting to $17.58, was taken to pay cost of stationery, and of printing the minutes.

A motion was made by M. L. Tustin, of Warwood, Wheeling, that it is the sense of this Conference that the number of District Superintendents be reduced from six to four.

Various amendments were offered, and a substitute motion to appoint a committee to study the question and report at the next conference was put to vote and declared lost.

Pending the discussion of the original motion, the time having come for the united session, a motion to recess until 4:00 o'clock P. M. was made and carried.

The Conference thereupon proceeded in a body to the First Methodist Church, where it met in united session with the members of the Annual Conference.

At 4:00 P. M. the Lay Conference re-convened at St. Paul's church, and was addressed by Bishop Adna W. Leohard.

After the Bishop's address, the conference was adjourned with benediction by Dr. J. W. Engle.

ROY REGER,
Secretary.

INVESTMENT — IN MEN — THE MINISTER

There may be a beautiful church building, with a powerful and most beautiful organ, but these avail but little until the voice of the preacher is heard. He may be an Amos with a prophesy of Righteousness in the name of the Lord. He may be beseeching his people to present their lives a living sacrifice, "holy acceptable unto God." He may be consoling the bereaved. But he is ever lifting up the Christ. He is the most necessary man in your community.

Mr. H. C. Berger, with the Aetna Life Insurance Company, writes "All the success of modern civilization can be attributed to the sacrificial services of the preachers of the Gospel. For this reason I am heartily in favor of a fund which will reasonably supply the needs of the retired ministers and encourage high-grade young men to enter the Ministry."

ANNUITY BONDS OR GUARANTEED LIFE INCOME BONDS

A Life Annuity Bond of the Permanent Trust Fund Association of the West Virginia Conference provides that upon the payment of a sum of money to the said Fund, the Permanent Fund agrees to pay the Annuitant certain amounts during his life. This Contract may be made to cover two lives. For example: If a man, 70 years of age, should purchase a bond for $5,000.00, the fund would pay him 7 per cent or $350.00 annually during his life in semi-annual installments of $175.00 each. At his death payments cease. When the absence of income and inheritance tax are considered, this makes a safe and efficient provision for old age income and avoids the hazard of bad investments.

Permanent Trust Fund Bonds are the BEST INVESTMENTS today because they are perfectly safe investments, because they are not taxable, because the older the person is when the bond is purchased the larger the annuity is paid, because Annuity Bonds may be purchased in any amount, and because Annuity is paid Semi-annually.

A SELF INVESTMENT

The Permanent Trust Fund of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church sells a safe and very attractive Life Income Bond which appeals especially to persons of middle age, or older, who desire to aid the old preacher of said conference and administer their own bounty and yet feel that they cannot afford to do without such income as their contemplated investment would bring during their life time. The Permanent Trust Fund Bonds (issued in amounts of $100.00 and upwards) pays a guaranteed life income, Annually or Semi-annually as desired based on age of the annuitant at the time of purchasing the Bond, beginning at 5 per cent at the age of Fifty years, the annuity increases one-half of one per cent with each half decade. So that if one 75 years old purchase such bond his annuity would be seven and one-half per cent.

It is understood that the principal sum paid for the bond becomes at once the property of the Permanent Trust Fund Association of said conference, and after the death of the annuitant the income from the above shall be devoted to the support of the Retired Ministers, their widows and orphans of the West Virginia Conference

For particulars address as below.

SUGGESTED FORM OF WILL

I give, devise and bequeath to the Permanent Trust Fund of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a corporation created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of West Virginia for the benefit of the retired ministers of said conference (the sum of $.....) and the receipt of the Treasurer or executive Secretary of said association shall be full and sufficient discharge of my executor for the same.

* If a devise of real estate is made a full and correct description should be given following the words "For the benefit of the retired ministers of said conference."

I. CONFERENCE ROLL AND RECORD

IMPORTANT NOTICE—In this Conference Roll and Record the following abbreviations are used: Pr. for Probationer; E. for Effective; Sn. for Supernumery; Rt. for Retired; Cred. for Admitted on Credentials.

"Non-Annuity Years" include (1) all years "On Trial" in excess of two; (2) Years Withdrawn; (3) Years Located; (4) Years Supernumerary; (5) Years Retired. In the case of Retired Members, the Non-Annuity Years are those charged at the time of Retirement. To find the year of retirement, add to the year of "Admission on Trial" the sum of the Annuity and Non-Annuity Years.

"Annuity Years" are those for which annuity can be allowed by the Conference Board of Stewards. These include the years in the "Effective Relation", which is the number of years from the time of "Admission in Full" to the time of death or final retirement less any Non-Annuity Years. To this, two of the years spent "on Trial" are added to make the "Annuity Years." In the case of persons who come to our Conference by transfer who were admitted in full in a Spring Conference, there may sometimes be allowed an extra "Annuity Year" for the extra half year. Such cases are indicated by a "over the year of admission."

Years "Preached in Other Churches" cannot be counted as "Annuity Years," although due consideration will be given this fact by the Board in the administering of the Necessitous Funds.

Every member of the Conference is urged to examine his record, and should there be any error, write the secretary.

ORDER OF THE DAY—Partial Equalization of Salaries. H. D. Ketcham offered the following resolution which was adopted by the Conference:

Your committee hereby recommends the adoption by this Conference of the principle of partial equalization of salaries, providing some equitable plans may be worked out. We, therefore, recommend the appointment of a Commission of five ministers and five laymen to work out some recommendation, if possible, and after consultation with the Cabinet, to report the same to the next Annual Session of the Conference.

We recommend that the commission shall consist of H. D. Ket-cham, Robert Bagnell, J. B. Workman, S. W. Bell, and B. W. Folsom, Ministers; and Clyde Law, Samuel Dils, Frank Thomas, Charles Hartley, and Harvey Harmer, Laymen.

SANCTUARY DAY—The following resolution was offered by A. S. Wolfe, and adopted by the Conference.

Whereas, the various Conference Reports show that 7,865 Churches in Methodism carry a Church and Parsonage Property debt of $68,000,000 of which number approximately 5,000 are in acute financial distress; and

Whereas, 24 Churches have already been sold and about 400 other Church properties are in foreclosure, or in the shadow of such a calamity; and

Whereas, the World Service Commission in annual session in Chicago, Illinois, July 10th to 12th, 1934, gave this critical situation most careful and thorough consideration, and authorized a "Special Offering" of $300,000 for which, World Service credit may be given, to apply on threatened Church Property Projects on certain conditions and with the approval of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, therefore, be it resolved:

1. That we, as a conference, pledge hearty cooperation to the Church Extension Department of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension in the efforts to be put forth in securing this "Special Offering";

2. That we recommend to all our churches the observance of a "Sanctuary Day" on some suitable Sunday, preferably on the Second Sunday in January, 1935, for which occasion we call on the pastors to preach a sermon on "The Influence and Importance of the Sanctuary in the Community," and take the authorized "Save-the-Sanctuary Special Offering" and send it to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension;

3. That a copy of this resolution shall be sent to the office of the Superintendent of the Department of Church Extension of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension with the notice that we will expect him and his committee on Procedure and Promotion to give us as much assistance as possible in the preparation for the "Save-the-Sanctuary Sunday" and the securing of a generous offering.

Conference Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the West Virginia

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON PUBLICATION OF THE JOURNAL—J. E. Wells presented the following report, which was received and ordered printed in the minutes:

For the committee on the publication on the Conference minutes, I present the following report:

This committee took over the work of publishing the Conference minutes with the close of the Conference of 1933.

Much credit is due the Secretary, W. S. Patterson, who, upon taking up the duties of his office, found the fund $384.25 in debt. Prior to the Conference of 1933 he had liquidated $149.31, leaving a debt of $250.00 unpaid when your committee took up this work. Our financial report for the past year is as follows:

Balance on hand at beginning of year	$ 15.02
Total collected	720.61
Proceeds for Note for $75.00	73.25

$808.88

Disbursements

Paid old note	$250.00
Publication of minutes, postage, printing, mailing, etc.,	533.49

Total disbursements	$783.49
Balance in Treasury	$ 25.39
Outstanding note of	$ 75.00
Less balance in Treasury	25.39

Leaves present debt$ 29.61

The committee recommends the following:

(1). That all Conference members, probationers, and supplies pay their assessments to the Treasurer before leaving the Conference.

(2). That we set Monday, noon, October 8, as the closing hour for the receipt of all matters for the Conference minutes, except the reports of the Treasurer and Statistician, who may be allowed a period of three or four days to complete their reports.

(3). That the matter of editing and condensing material for the minutes be left entirely in the hands of the committee on publication.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. WELLS, Chairman.

On motion of W. M. Shultz the Commission on Publication of the Journal was ordered to send the Conference minutes to retired preachers without charge.

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE CABINET—The following resolution was presented by L. S. Grose and on motion was adopted.

RESOLUTION ON CLEANER MOVIES—H. C. Howard offered the following resolution which was adopted:

"Taking into consideration that seventy million persons in the United States attend the moving pictures every week, and believing in the peak educational value of the screen when rightly used, and has a definite influence on the creation of public opinion and the attitudes on moral questions along with the press, the school, and the home. What the movies do is of extreme importance to the social, political life and to the school and the very life of the home and church.

There is a growing conviction that the movies have violated not only insights of the Christian Conscience but the very canons of common and accepted decency and an aroused sense of moral standards protests against the soiling of community life and morals.

The Christian approach to such a situation is not a demand for legislation but the public announcement that we should select our own entertainment according to Christian Standards of Judgement and encourage others to apply these same standards.

We heartily endorse the Methodist movement for Better movies in cooperation with the Federal Council of Churches, the Catholic League of Decency and the Central Conference of Jewish Rabbis and all others who may be interested.

We urge our pastors to observe Sunday, October 21, to present the matter to their congregations and present the pledge which may be secured from the Methodists Movement for Better Movies, 740 Rush Street, Chicago."

IX. REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' REPORT, OCTOBER 1, 1933, TO OCTOBER 1, 1934

Bishop Lowe, brethren of the Conference, lay and clerical, your Superintendents come to make their report to you of the progress of the Kingdom as it touches the Methodist Episcopal Church throughout the wide reaches of the West Virginia Conference for the year now ending.

First of all, we wish to exxpress our profound gratitude to Almighty God for the preservation of our lives and for the grace given, that has enabled us in at least some small way to be efficient in the work committed by you into our hands.

This has not been an easy year for some of the preachers of the Conference, for want has come very near some of our parsonages. While these men of God have faced almost impossible problems during the year, and have borne burdens almost too heavy for human endurance, and while some of the queens of the parsonages have washed their faces in the rain of their own tears, not one of them has lifted the flag of surrender.

The ravages of death never cease, and the horrors wrought since we last met are plainly seen in our broken and depleted ranks. Again, several of our number during the year have fallen into the arms of Jesus, slept peacefully across the river of death only to awaken amidst the sunkissed beauty of the morning immortal.

Their names were called and honored in the special service of Wednesday evening.

The districts as a whole had a better year than any in the recent past. There has been revivals of various intensity all over the Conference, but these have been in spots and by spells.

In these days when the forces of evil are perfectly united and the church divided and half asleep, and the almighty dollar substituted for Almighty God, we must have an old fashioned John Wesley revival or suffer the judgments of God some day not far away.

There must be a cause somewhere for our spiritual poverty and lack of a general spiritual awakening.

We complain a good deal about the hardship imposed upon us by the law of pro-rating, but if every pastor and Charge would work together for a genuine spiritual awakening, there would be no deficiencies in pro-rating. 5,086 conversions and 4,432 accessions to the church were reported this year.

In spite of the depression our West Virginia Wesleyan College had one of its very best years. Enrollment for the year was only 2% in decrease of 1932-33. The present enrollment is 456. Friends of the college have purchased $60,000 worth of college bonds.

October 5, 1933, was known to the college and the Conference as "Bishop's Day." Bishop and Mrs. Leonard were guests of the college. In the morning Bishop Leonard addressed the students and in the afternoon he spoke to a gathering of ministers and laymen.

November 1, 1934, will be "Bishop's Day." The college administration is most anxious to make this day a great occasion for the gathering of Methodist ministers and laymen on the campus.

Last fall our Conference Director of Christian Education, A. Coleman Brown, was asked to supervise the religious activities of Methodist students at West Virginia University in addition to his other duties. The director has cooperated with First Church, Morgantown, in maintaining an office and an attractive Student Center. An active and very effective program for the training of university students from Methodist homes is under way.

For the eighteenth year the Conference Epworth League Institute met on the campus of the college, August 12th to 19th. 250 Leaguers were in attendance at the Institute. This is the largest enrollment for some years.

A substantial increase in Standard Training Schools and Daily Vacation Schools is reported.

Most of the Charges are reporting an increase in world Service giving. From all indications, the total for the year will be an increase over last year.

The Methodist Field Day at Dawson's Camp in the Morgantown District was an outstanding event. Forty Methodist ministers and more than 2,000 Methodists of the District met for an all-day sequel-Centennial celebration. Interest in some of the vital topics of the day was stimulated throughout the District, when a number of young men and women discussed them before the great crowd which gathered for the occasion.

New churches were built at Broad Oaks, Clarksburg, Six Mile Creek and Jeffrey Charge, at cost of approximately $27,000. More than 50 churches and parsonages report improvements at cost of approximately $20,000.

Your Superintendents have discovered that citizens of this sovereign State by the thousands are changing their attitude toward repeal and there are reasons to believe that we will retain our State prohibition amendment on the second Tuesday of November this year. Dr. Joy said recently in the Advocate that there are forty-four million more church members in this country than the sum total of all the votes cast in the last national election. Do you think we need a spiritual awakening as a church?

O, Church of God, let us repent in sackcloth and ashes and return to do our first works over again. Then the Lord will hear us from His Holy Hill and we shall be Living in the new world.

There have been few personal references and commendations in this report; time and space have been short, but if the Superintendents might speak their hearts, they would tax the limits of their speech in honest commendation of these workmen of the Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. B. KING, District Superintendent,
Parkersburg District.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY
of the
PERMANENT TRUST FUND ASSOCIATION

October 3rd.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

In presenting to you this my fourth report of your work which you intrusted to my hands, namely, the Permanent Trust Fund Association of the West Virginia Conference.

I present this report not to magnify the difficulties through which we have come, nor to especially ask for sympathy for the sacrifices and toils of the year.

True the work has been exceedingly hard this year, harder than it might have been had there been better cooperation on part of pastors.

Our Young Men who look at retirement at long range seem not to be interested in such long investments without more immediate returns ought to turn the glass end for end and see how near the day of retirement is at hand, at longest it will be a short day until your name will be changed from effective to the Honored relation Retired, and you be on the Pension Roll of the West Virginia Conference.

I joined the West Virginia Conference in 1898, of the effective men then in the Conference only nine are effective today, they have either died or retired since then; so that in 36 years 205 have died and most of these brethren left dependents to be provided for by the Conference.

It is a burning shame that out of 252 Charges that only 100 have been interested enough to take the collection ordered by the Conference. Brethren, I speak kindly but frankly when I say, any man who deliberately refuses to cooperate with this work enough to take that collection ought never expect a Pension for himself nor for his family when he is no longer able to work. Beloved, it costs you nothing to present the cause and take a collection, any man can do that, and he cannot feel that he has done his part until that collection has been taken.

Pro-rating is the law of the church, and the pastors have as much right to take part of the World Service money and apply it to his salary as he has to take part of the old Preachers money and use it for his own benefit. Brethren, that is a misappropriation of funds.

Paying your 1% is a matter of your own business but for every year you fail, you rob your own family when you are no longer productive, and your entire support is shut off. Brethren, it is not good business sense to procrastinate until the evil day comes.

You have a good Board of Directors, who have worked faithfully with your Executive Secretary to conserve our invested funds, and we are thus far able to report but a comparatively small loss in our total holdings. Much smaller losses than the losses of large banks and bond holding houses, all of which is worthy of the congratulations of the West Virginia Conference.

In spite of the desolations of the past, and discouragements of other Conference, the net income for the year 1933-34 for the West Virginia Conference is as follows:

Three brick houses valued at $5,000.00 each	$15,000.00
Twelve fine building lots	6,000.00
188 Shares Monongehalah West Penn stock	4,700.00
17½ Shares Marion Building Loan stock	2,275.00
I. O. O. F. Bonds and other interests	1,500.00
First Mortgage Notes	3,200.00
Cash in bank	1,700.00
	$32,375.00

That is to say after all expenses of the year have been paid we have a net gain of $32,375.00.

Brethren, if you will but cooperate and help to find those folk who have some money and are kindly disposed to our Fund, and help the Executive Secretary to find these folk when they are about ready to make their wills, we shall soon be able to bring in that better day for the retired men.

I am profoundly grateful to Almighty God for His goodly providences over me and mine, and hereby wish to express my gratitude to Ministers and Laymen for every kindness shown me in the work of the year.

Sincerely,
W. M. SHULTZ, Ex. Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING CONFERENCE MINUTES

For the Committee on the Publication of the Conference Minutes, I present the following report:

This committee took over the work of publishing the Conference Minutes with the close of the Conference of 1933. Much credit is due the Secretary, W. S. Patterson, who upon taking up the duties of his office, found the fund $384.25 in debt. Prior to the Conference of 1933 he had liquidated $149.31, leaving a debt of $250.00 unpaid when your committee took up this work. Our financial report for the past year is as follows:

Balance on hand at beginning of year.....	$ 15.02
Total collected	720.61
Proceeds of Note for $75.00.....	73.25
Total receipts	$808.88

DISBURSEMENTS:

Paid old note	$250.00
Publication of minutes, postage, printing, mailing Conference reports, etc.	533.49
Total Disbursements	$783.49
Balance in Treasury	25.39
Outstanding note of	$ 75.00
Less Balance in Treasury	25.39
Leaves present debt	$29.61

If all ministers and supplies will continue to cooperate in the plan, we believe that we will be able to liquidate the debt this fall, and probably increase the number of copies above the 7 sent to Conference men, and the 6 sent to probationers and supplies as was done last year.

I wish to commend careful work of our Treasurer, B. T. Trevey, in the handling of the funds, and of W. S. Patterson, our Secretary, for his splendid clerical work.

The committee recommends the following:

(1) That all Conference members, probationers, and supplies pay their assessments to the treasurer before leaving the Conference.

(2) That we set Monday, noon, October 8, as the closing hour for the receipts of all matters for the Conference minutes, except the reports of the Treasurer and Statistician, who may be allowed a period of 3 or 4 days to complete their reports.

(3) That the matter of editing and condensing material for the minutes be left entirely in the hands of the committee on publication.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. WELLS, Chairman.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION

The Finance Commission met in regular session in the Thomson Methodist Episcopal Church in Wheeling, W. Va., October 6, 1934, with John Beddow presiding.

The Treasurer, Chas. W. Evans, reported that each District Superintendent had received $3,585.00 and the commission recommended that 9 per cent of pastor's cash salary be the apportionment for the support for District Superintendents for the ensuing year.

JOHN L. WOLFE, Secretary.
JOHN BEDDOW, President.

WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL REPORT

Complying with the requirements of the Discipline relative to our share of World Service, your Council has made a careful study of the requirements of the Church, and the possibilities of our Conference, reaching our share of the apportionment.

Last year we accepted an apportionment of 57,000, and according to returns contributed $35,000. In view of this fact, it is the opinion of your Council that an asking more nearly within our reach will stimulate the greater efforts to attain unto our goal.

Therefore, we recommend the acceptance of 45,000 as our share of the $4,500,000, apportioned to the entire church, instead of $56,200 as requested by the World Service Council, and urge a greater effort on the part of each church to raise their assigned share.

Respectfully submitted,

CLAUDE E. GOODWIN, Chairman.

World Service Council, West Virginia Conference.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AND WESLEY FOUNDATION

We make the following recommendations:

1. That A. Coleman Brown, the Conference Director of Christian Education and the Director of Wesley Foundation, be continued this year in charge of the united appointment and that the special committee provided by the Conference Board of Education to help the director plan the work, be continued.

2. We recommend that a Planning Conference be conducted, and that all district superintendents with selected leaders participate.

3. We authorize a quiet enrollment of interested friends in an effort to provide for reclaiming the Wesley Foundation property.

4. We commend the young people in all parts of the Conference upon their response to Epworth League and other young peoples challenges of the church.

5. We recommend the New Courses in leadership training.

6. We approve an increased cooperation with other Christian forces, especially as represented in the West Virginia Council of Christian Education and the State Ministers Conference. We nominate A. F. Shomo, S. C. Jones and Arthur Lazenby to represent the Conference in the State Council, and M. C. Miles in the State Ministers Conference.

7. That the following arrangements for the financial support of the work be provided:

(1) Observe Rally Day in every local congregation and remit the offering, without fail, to the Board of Education, in Chicago.

(2) Every charge make a liberal and equitable designation of World Service giving to Religious Education in the West Virginia Conference.

(3) Every charge make a liberal and equitable designation of World Service giving to Wesley Foundation at Morgantown.

(4) The Annual Conference Benevolence credit assignment for Wesley Foundation shall be computed on the basis of cash salary paid the pastor for the previous year as follows:

8. The following visitors be appointed to visit Wesley Foundation: Rev. Ralph Dunn, Weston, and R. E. Marston, Huntington.

WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

We commend the administration of West Virginia Wesleyan College under the able leadership of President Roy McCuskey and Vice President John E. Hanifan, and point with just pride to the increased enrollment of this year and the financial strengthening, of the institution, through the sale of $60,000.00 worth of a $100,000.00 bond issue.

We submit for your adoption the following recommendations:

First, the continuation of the fifty cent per member asking and a more definite and determined effort on the part of all churches to raise this Conference apportionment. More of our strong and well organized churches should place this apportionment in their budgets.

Second, we would call attention to the opportunity of designating gifts through World Service to the college. We have been notified by Secretary Eiselen that we may secure designated gifts to the amount of $2,500.00, which is an increase of $1,180.00 over last year. We advise the churches to send in the designated amounts as early as possible in the Conference year.

Third, the sale of the remaining $40,000.00 worth of bonds before 1935 Commencement. This is imperative. Coming to each of us is the challenge to invest in the leadership of tomorrow's Methodism and to discover among the constituency of the church and friends of the college those who will join us in completing this victory so auspiciously begun.

Fourth, an open, full, and whole-hearted espousal of the college as a project of Methodism in the West Virginia Conference. There should be no divided interest or loyalty among the ministry and laity of the Conference when and where West Virginia Wesleyan College is involved.

As Methodists, it is our only institution. It has won its place, and is entitled to the Church's sacrificial support.

Fifth, with gratitude in the increased interest in the college, inspired by the presence of Bishop and Mrs. Leonard on Bishop's Day last year, we recommend the organization of the Districts for a 100% representation of ministers and laymen at the College on this year's Bishop's Day, November 1st. This visit of our Bishop has positive value in developing college consciousness among our con-

Sixth, the approaching semi-centennial of the founding of the College offers us the opportunity of planning for a celebration which may well be the outstanding event in the splendid history of West Virginia Wesleyan College. We recommend a Conference wide participation in this celebration.

Seventh, your committee recommends the election of the following trustees for the terms indicated:

For four years (term expiring 1938):

Mr. W T. Williamson, Charleston, W. Va.

Rev. W. Sproule Boyd, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Rev. J. W. Engle, D. D., Moundsville, W. Va.

Mr. H. W. Harmer, Clarksburg, W. Va.

Rev. J. E. Scott, D.D., Wheeling, W. Va.

Mr. Ronald Moist, Clarksburg, W. Va.

Mr. O. J. Morrison, Charleston, W. Va.

Rev. L. S. Grose, D. D., Buckhannon, W. Va.

Dr. O. L. Hudkins, Weston, W. Va.

Mr. A. G. Shannon, Buckhannon, W. Va.

For three years (term expiring 1937):

Rev. Joseph C. Hoffman, D.D., Morgantown, W. Va.

Rev. John L. Wolfe, Fairmont, W. Va.

For two years (term expiring 1936):

Mr. Mason Crickard, Charleston, W. Va.

Eighth, the following are appointed visitors to the College: Dr. S. B. Hart, Prof. Jackson, Clarksburg, W. Va.

M. C. MILES, Secretary.

HOMER E. WARK, President.

AREA SCHOOL OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING

(Reprinted from 1933 Minutes)

"Although the New Venture of Supporting the Summer School at Mountain Lake Park by the Conference has not measured up to our expectations, we believe, nevertheless, that it will eventually furnish sufficient funds to support the school in an adequate measure.

We wish, therefore, to move that the general plan of the past Conference year shall be adopted in the year 1933-34 with the following scale of apportionments: $2,500 and above—$6.00; $2,000 and under $2,500—$5.00; $1,500 and under $2,000—$4.00; $1,200 and under $1,500—$3.00; $1,000 and under $1,200—$2.00; $700 and under $1,000—$1.00.”

PLEASE NOTE CAREFULLY: By action of the Conference the above apportionments were continued for the year 1934-35.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

I. The Menace and Crime of War

Whatever may have been the justification for war in other ages and other conditions, in the present conditions of world life war would be deadly to civilization itself and would be the colossal crime of human history. This is true because of the (1) Deadliness of all the weapons of war today. (2) The very intimate and vital relations existing between men and nations over the world. (3) The fearful unrest, tension and distrust existing within the nations and between the nations.

II. United States and the War Situation

(a) We heartily commend the work that the Committee of the United States Senate is doing in revealing the fearful work being done to promote war by the munitions manufacturers and we earnestly urge that our government take effective measures to control the whole situation. (b) We again record our earnest protest against compulsory military education in our schools and commend those students who for conscience sake will not submit to it. (c) We record our dissatisfaction and shame that the United States continues to remain outside of the World Court. We were the people that first suggested the Court. (d) We believe in the League of Nations and commend the good work it has done, but we think if we had taken our place in it its usefulness would have been much greater. We ought at once to seek such adjustments as would make possible our immediate entrance. (e) We ought to take a practical leadership in the reduction of armaments. We have nothing to fear from any people in the world and more than any other people we can safely disarm. We urge the immediate reduction to a police basis and we earnestly protest against the constant move to increase the navy and other arms now going on. (f) It is a matter of profound regret to us that we have permitted our tariff policy, our attempt to collect the war debts and in other ways have produced a wide distrust among the nations and we plead that there may be such changes in our policy as to assure the world of our friendship. Any nationalism that comes into conflict with a genuine internationalism is a menace and a crime. We must have a real comity of the nations.

III. The Church

(a) The Church must take her stand as irrevocably opposed to war. We will not support it. (b) We call upon all our pastors and leaders to carry on by every means possible a genuine education of all our people in this vital subject.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT BAGNELL,
D. C. PICKENS,
C. G. STATER,
EUGENE MODLIN.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

As a church represented by the ministers in Annual Conference assembled, we must again view with alarm and pause in amazement to record the liquor problem. We had after many years of the licensed saloon, a period of constitutional prohibition. This did not destroy the traffic in alcoholic beverages. It did arrest the growth of drunkenness, push back the forces of organized vice, and gave to the people of these United States good hope that a settlement was found for that which represented the sum total of all villainies.

Now we are confronted with national prohibition repeal and a State law that permits the sale of intoxicating liquors, Sunday as well as week days, without regard to place or character of persons to whom such licenses are issued. In addition to that, we are called upon at the election November 6, to vote for the retention or repeal of the Amendment to the Constitution of the State forbidding the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

Using the words of Dr. Clarence True Wilson, "The moral people must take an interest in this question, and the Church's specialty is morals. No power can ever excuse the church or society for neglecting the liquor problem." The licensing of the liquor traffic has not lessened drunkenness and it has not discouraged the bootlegger. It has not prevented the re-establishing of the old time saloon with all its viciousness.

Therefore, the West Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, representing a membership of 90,000, and a constituency of twice that number, calls upon the membership of the church to vote to prevent the repeal of the State Constitutional Amendment, and to vote for only those candidates for the Legislature who are pledged to vote for the repeal of the liquor laws enacted two years ago. We recommend that a committee be appointed in every church to carry out the provisions of this resolution.

We pledge ourselves to the loyal support of the Allied Dry Forces of the State in their campaign to secure victory for prohibition of the liquor traffic.

Signed,

S. B. HART, Chairman.

NINTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY

In this year of our Lord, 1934, all Methodists look back to the beginning of American Methodism, for this year marks the Methodist Sesquicentennial Anniversary

The Methodist Episcopal Church was organized at the "Christmas Conference" in Baltimore beginning on December 24, 1784.

American Methodism is older than our organized church, for there had to be elements with which to create a church. Developments began as early as 1766 when a "class" was organized in New York. It is claimed that the Strawbridge "class" in Maryland has equal priority.

The Wesley plan of creating societies without organizing them into a church was followed in America; accordingly, societies sprang up, annual conferences were begun as early as 1773, and in 1784 there were reported a total of 14,988 members, 60 chapels, 83 itinerants and several hundred local preachers. This nucleus of the Methodist Church extended along the Atlantic seaboard and even west of the Alleghanies. Now our world-wide Methodist Church, in all its branches, has a constituency of over 9,000,000.

Likewise, the Methodism of western Virginia is slightly older than the organized Methodist Episcopal Church. It did not take Francis Asbury and the pioneer itinerants long to discover West Virginia, even though hid behind the mountains. Tradition has it that John Hagerty and Richard Owings preached the first Methodist sermons west of the Blue Ridge in 1775. Certain it is that the Berkeley Circuit including the county by that name was formed in 1778 and Allegheny Circuit including Greenbrier Valley was formed in 1783. Rev. Asbury preached in Martinsburg in 1781. He visited Hampshire County in 1782 and Jefferson county in 1783. Later the Bishop made frequent tours of the territory embraced in our State.

Methodism followed closely on the trail of the immigrants, which accounts for its far-flung fronts, and the fact that a Methodist church is found in almost every place of any importance whatever, and in many thousands of rural places with only a small, scattered population, shows this to be true.

The chief factor of early Methodism was the circuit rider, with his horse and saddle-bags, the latter filled with a copy of the Bible, tracts and a small wardrobe. He did not wait for roads or trails, but blazed his own way throughout the dense wilderness of his vast circuit. He had a superhuman inspiration and seemed to be able to endure more privations and carry on with less food and rest than other pioneer heroes. He braved the dangers of the elements and ferocious beasts so that the service rendered to the hardy settlers of those early days was accepted as alike effective and genuine. The local or resident preachers constituted formidable second line of offense in the general attack upon the Devil and all his works.

The supervision of the Presiding Elder of saddle-bag days was militant as well as spritual. He was a severe taskmaster, requiring strict observance on the part of his circuit riders of all Christian virtues. The waste places were looked after by him so that soon a circuit rider went up to possess the land. The Methodist Presiding Elder usually was the forerunner of pioneer Christian emissaries to new felds. He was a self-sacrificing leader preaching Christ and Him crucified. He arranged the quarterly meetings the chief item of business of which was a gracious revival. This lasted for days and he did most of the preaching which afforded a training school in homiletics for the circuit rider in charge. The resultant conversions were clear and numerous.

The general superintendence devolved almost wholly upon Francis Asbury, who labored in season and out of season. He remained when his English preachers returned to England at the outbreak of the Revolution. He became a thorough American and no other man has wielded the influence in the establishment and formation of American Methodism as did he in those many itineraries on horseback throughout the wilderness where dwelt the people he loved. No greater commander-in-chief could have taken the field than the "Prophet of the Long Road," the posthumous title given Bishop Asbury, for he labored with prophetic assurance and phenomenal success during the 45 years of his ministry. His methodical journal describing his abundant labors reads like a romance.

Another factor of this missionary and evangelistic system was camp meetings heartily approved by the Bishop. These were held repeatedly in the summer at strategic points. From a radius of many miles the people would flock to them bringing food and tents in which to live. They were often held in groves, God's first temples. The people witnessed and participated in great outpourings of divine power. The early Methodist camp meetings with an attendance of hundreds and even thousands bent on experimental knowledge of life, religion and God in their lives of hardship, gave vent and full play to their emotional natures which may appeal to some of later generations as chaotic and fantastic.

Upon these shall we say crude foundations has been built this great church with its classic spires and refined adaptations for service to an everchanging world. They were good, substantial and solid foundations for the church still stands. Her record lives. Detailed and exact statistics of its inception and early years have been sacredly preserved. No church in Christendom has a more complete record of its official acts and achievements. The record in substance speaks for itself for a century and a half.

The heroic and self-sacrificing spirit of the founders is worthy of emulation. Therefore, we look back a hundred and fifty years for lessons then which may with profit be emphasized again; Faith in God, power of regeneration, salvation of men.

Respectfully submitted,

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODISM,

By Wm. Burdette Mathews, Chairman.

INVESTMENT — IN MEN — THE MINISTER

There may be a beautiful church building, with a powerful and most beautiful organ, but these avail but little until the voice of the preacher is heard. He may be an Amos with a prophecy of Righteousness in the name of the Lord. He may be beseeching his people to present their lives a living sacrifice, "holy acceptable unto God." He may be consoling the bereaved. But he is ever lifting up the Christ. He is the most necessary man in your community.

Mr. H. C. Berger, with the Aetna Life Insurance Company, writes, "All the success of modern civilization can be attributed to the sacrificial services of the preachers of the Gospel. For this reason I am heartily in favor of a fund which will reasonably supply the needs of the retired ministers and encourage high-grade young men to enter the Ministry."

ANNUITY BONDS OR GUARANTEED LIFE INCOME BONDS

A Life Annuity Bond of the Permanent Trust Fund Association of the West Virginia Conference provides that upon the payment of a sum of money to the said Fund, the Permanent Fund agrees to pay the Annuitant certain amounts during his life. This Contract may be made to cover two lives. For example: If a man, 70 years of age, should purchase a bond for $5,000.00, the fund would pay him 7 per cent or $350.00 annually during his life in semi-annual installments of $175.00 each. At his death payments cease. When the absence of income and inheritance tax are considered, this makes a safe and efficient provision for old age income and avoids the hazard of bad investments.

Permanent Trust Fund Bonds are the BEST INVESTMENTS today because they are perfectly safe investments, because they are not taxable, because the older the person is when the bond is purchased the larger the annuity is paid, because Annuity Bonds may be purchased in any amount, and because Annuity is paid Semi-annually.

A SELF INVESTMENT

The Permanent Trust Fund of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church sells a safe and very attractive Life Income Bond which appeals especially to persons of middle age, or older, who desire to aid the old preachers of said conference and administer their own bounty and yet feel that they cannot afford to do without such income as their contemplated investment would bring during their life time. The Permanent Trust Fund Bonds (issued in amounts of $100.00 and upwards) pays a guaranteed life income, Annually or Semi-annually as desired based on age of the annuitant at the time of purchasing the Bond, beginning at 5 per cent at the age of Fifty years, the annuity increases one-half of one per cent with each half decade. So that if one 75 years old purchase such bond his annuity would be seven and one-half per cent.

It is understood that the principal sum paid for the bond becomes at once the property of the Permanent Trust Fund Association of said conference, and after the death of the annuitant the income from the above shall be devoted to the support of the Retired Ministers, their widows and orphans of the West Virginia Conference.

For particulars address as below.

SUGGESTED FORM OF WILL

I give, devise and bequeath to the Permanent Trust Fund of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a corporation created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of West Virginia for the benefit of the retired ministers of said conference (the sum of $.....) and the receipt of the Treasurer or executive Secretary of said association shall be full and sufficient discharge of my executor for the same.

* If a devise of real estate is made a full and correct description should be given following the words "For the benefit of the retired ministers of said conference."

Address,
W. M. SHULTZ,
1211 First Ave.,
Charleston, W. Va.

TRIBUTES

REV. JOHN H. HESS

The Rev. John H. Hess was born January 5, 1851, in Maryland, and died while on a visit to the home of his son in Charleston, West Virginia, December 16, 1933. He was united in marriage October 24, 1878, to Miss Phoebe Lynch, who preceeded him by one year to the Heavenly Home.

To this union were born four children, two of whom survive, John H. Hess, Jr., of Charleston, and Mrs. Walter M. Evans, of Wheeling.

Dr. Hess was admitted to our Conference fellowship in 1875. In the service of the church he practically traveled the entire State of West Virginia. In almost half a century of effective work he served a long list of churches. Nearly all the churches of the city of Wheeling felt the power of his ministry, with outstanding pastorates at Thomson, Chapline Street and North Street. Grafton, Fairmont and Charleston are also to be noted for conspicuous pastorates. He served two years as Chaplain of the Penitentiary at Moundsville. Later he was minister of the church there and was the successful superintendent of Buckhannon District for one term. He represented his Conference at the General Conference in Cleveland in 1896. Taking the retired relation in 1922 he continued until the time of his death as a pastor at large, always the friend of the needy and a good minister of Jesus Christ. One can not speak too highly of this quiet, unassuming man of God, who was one of our most effective men. To the last he was about his Master's business and was known affectionately as the "grand old man of our ministerial fellowship." Practically all the ministers of the Wheeling District attended the funeral service in Wheeling which was participated in by Dr. J. W. Engle, District Superintendent, Rev. Thomas Zumbrunnen of Edgewood Park Church, and his own minister, Rev. Jo. W. G. Fast.

REV. MARCELLUS KNOTTS

The Rev. Marcellus Knotts, for more than fifty years a local preacher and Supply Pastor, as well as sustaining and affective relationship to the West Virginia Annual Conference, was born in Preston County, August 16, 1848, and departed this life at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. A. Custer, Grafton, West Virginia, Saturday night, December 30, 1933, aged eighty-five years, four months and fourteen days. He was married to Mary Elizabeth Squires, November 10, 1870. She preceded him in death fifteen years ago. The following children survive:

Mrs. H. A. Custer, Grafton, West Virginia.

Mrs. C. N. Shahan, Youngstown, Ohio.

Mrs. Clarke Shahan, Fellowsville, West Virginia.

J. W. Knotts, Grafton, West Virginia.

P. W. Knotts, Grafton, West Virginia.

Prof. Z. R. Knotts, Montgomery, West Virginia.

Brother Knotts was a member of the Quarterly Conference of the Andrews Church of Grafton. He was ever loyal, faithful; a coworker, never failing to cooperate in every worth while religious work. He was a teacher of the Bible of great ability, and a student of the world's needs. His attendance upon the worship services filled his minister with inspiration and appreciation. He was the life of the Men's Bible Class of Andrews, where as teacher and leader throughout the years, he labored most effectively.

As a Minister of the Word, Brother Knotts was fearless, sincere and attractive. For more than fifty years, as local preacher, Supply Pastor, and Effective Elder, Brother Knotts labored untiringly. Before retiring some eighteen years ago, he served the following Charges: Pleasant Grove, Friendsville, Knottsville, Masontown, Halleck, Bridgeport, Evansville, Pruntytown, Blueville-Thornton.

As a friend and Christian, Brother Knotts counted his friends by the hundreds. He was highly respected by every one. The children loved him, and often gathered about him at the services of the Andrews Church.

The funeral services were held in Andrews Church, Grafton, and were directed by S. Charles Jones, the Minister. The address was made by Supt. John L. Wolfe. Assisting in the service were W. R. Eskew, H. W. Flanagan, Jesse Earl, Charles E. Hawkins, and Earle N. Carlson. Interment was made in Bluemont Cemetery.

REV. OMAR URBANE MARPLE

Rev. Omar Urbane Marple was born January 15, 1855, in Upshur County, West Virginia, not very far from the town of Buckhannon, and passed to his reward June 22, 1934. He was married to Miss Mary E. McDermott March 4, 1883, who survives him. He is also survived by four children: Dr. F. O. Marple, Dr. A. I. Marple, of Huntington, W. Va., Upton Marple, of Turkey Run, W. Va., and Mrs. Stella Waugh, of Charleston, W. Va., and several grandchildren.

He was ordained to the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1891 and served the Church for forty years, retiring in 1932. He held in the Conference the following pastorates: Camden, Glenville, Holly Grove, Belington, Salem, Triadelphia, Rowlesburg, Thomas, West Huntington, Clendenin, Benwood, South Charleston, Spencer, Dunbar, Albright, Tunnelton, Frenchton, Newlon, Troy.

As a minister, his work was characterized by faithfulness. It was a rule of his life to make every appointment however difficult to reach. He was recognized as a church builder and some of his appointments were determined by this fact. He knew the law of the Church and was often sought by his brethren for advice in some matter in which the law of the Church was in question. His judgment could be relied upon. As a preacher his convictions were deep seated and he did not hesitate to make them known. In all the fields where he labored he revealed the qualities of a good minister of Jesus Christ.

Funeral services were held at his recent home on Turkey Run, W. Va., and were in charge of District Superintendent Grose, assisted by Claude E. Goodwin.

REV. GEORGE W. MARSTON

Rev. G. W. Marston was born at Florence, Ky., September 9, 1851, and died at Williamstown, W. Va., July 27, 1934.

He was ordained as deacon in 1885 and two years later was made an Elder. He served in the Greenbrier District of the Virginia Conference until it was united with the West Virginia Conference, at which time he was automatically transferred to the latter.

On September 9, 1885, brother Marston was married to Miss Lida Irons of Wayne County, W. Va., and together they served several charges with marked success. Three children were born to them. Owing to the ill health of their eldest child they were obliged to seek a location where nature would be kinder. Four years later they served in Missouri. As soon as circumstances permitted, however, they returned to West Virginia.

Brother Marston gave his heart to Jesus Christ very early in life. His call to the ministry was unmistakable and his response most hearty. He served loyally and faithfully in the discharging of his ministerial duties and was a Pastor beloved by his people. He moved amongst men mindful of their moral and spiritual needs. He preached fearlessly and with a passion characteristic of those who know they are sent out to be fishers of men.

Funeral services were conducted in the First M. E. Church, Williamstown, Rev. Wm. Knox, Dr. W. B. King, Dr. Homer H. Baumgardner, and Rev. C. W. Smith sharing the final rites. Interment was made in the Knights of Pythias Cemetery, Williamstown.

REV. O. M. PULLEN

The Rev. O. M. Pullen, of Charleston, W. Va., a retired member of the West Virginia Conference, for many years superintendent of the State Anti-Saloon League, died in a hospital in Washington, D. C., November 3, after several months' illness. He was transferred to West Virginia Conference from Virginia Conference in 1903, and served the following charges: Richwood, Claremont, Winona, Point Pleasant, Huntington (West) and Davis. In 1915 he became assistant superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League and in 1918 superintendent, which position he filled with eminent success until April, 1933, when ill health forced him to resign. He was twice married; his first wife having died in 1911, he was married to Miss Anna Brock in 1915; she with her five children and one daughter by his former wife survive him. Dr. J. B. Workman had charge of funeral services, assisted by Drs. E. J. Westfall, Robert Bagnell, J. C. Buckley, and John Beddow. Burial was made in the Point Pleasant Cemetery, Monday, November 6.

REV. D. F. CORDER

Rev. D. F. Corder was born in 1852 and died at his home in Dallis, W. Va., October 17, 1934, at the age of 82 years, after an illness of two weeks.

Rev. Corder spent forty years in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was responsible for the building of sixteen churches.

He was a graduate of West Virginia Conference Seminary, now West Virginia Wesleyan College.

He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Frank Kimmins, and one brother, Rev. J. B. Corder.

Services were held at the Dollis M. E. Church October 20, 1934, C. S. DeBarr, pastor, in charge, assisted by Dr. J. H. Hess.

The following ministers served as pallbearers: W. H. Gilmore, B. F. Donley, A. M. Barlow, Wesley Woodruff, O. R. Snodgrass, and P. Z. Musgrave.

REV. WILLIAM COLEMAN

William Coleman, pastor at Pine Grove, W. Va., died at the Ohio Valley General Hospital in Wheeling on February 16. He had not been well for several weeks and had gone to the hospital for an examination. Services were held at Pine Grove and at Fayetteville, where he was buried. He was born at Blackwood, South Wales, October 16, 1867, the son of Samuel and Elizabeth Coleman, and studied at Cliff College, Derbyshire, England, and at Mr. Champness' school for home missions. After preaching in England about twenty years, he came to the United States and entered West Virginia Conference. On April 6, 1908, at the Metropolitan Tabernacle in New York City, he married Emily Armitage, who had come from England to be his bride. They served Fayetteville, Rainelle, Philippi, Beckley, Gassaway and Pine Grove. Mr. Coleman was Treasurer of West Virginia Wesleyan College five years, Conference treasurer nine years, and a member of the Conference Board of Examiners about that same length of time. He is survived by Mrs. Coleman and a daughter, Mary Elizabeth Coleman, a high school teacher. District Superintendent James W. Engle conducted the funeral services and was assisted by the Rev. Mr. Fields, pastor of the local Christian Church.

REV. ADDISON E. BARNES

The Rev. Addison Edward Barnes died at his home in New Martinsville, W. Va., August 15, aged eighty-three. He began his ministry in Central Tennessee Conference; eight years later he transferred to the North East Ohio. After two years he transferred to West Virginia Conference, where he gave beautiful and helpful service for forty-two years. His wife, Mrs. Ella Gorby Barnes, preceded him in death two years ago. He is survived by four sons, three daughters, ten grandchildren and a sister, Miss Anna Barnes, of Sommerton, O. Funeral services, in First Church, New Martinsville, were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. B. T. Trevey, and Dr. James W. Engle, superintendent of Wheeling District.

MRS. JANE N. SANFORD

Mrs. Jane N. Sanford, wife of the late Rev. H. C. Sanford, closed a beautiful earthly life at the age of ninety-two years. She was born in Kentucky, married Doctor Sanford in Catlettsburg, Ky., and was his helpful companion in West Virginia Conference, where he served for fifty years. She lived in Moundsville for thirty years and was an interested member of First Church. Her pastor, J. C. Hoffman, conducted funeral services, and interment was in Mount Rose Cemetery. Surviving are her two daughters, Misses Alice and Jeanie, one brother, a sister and five grandchildren.

MRS. JULIA EDWARDS STEPHENS

Mrs. Julia Edwards Stephens, wife of Rev. Wirt M. Stephens, was born October 17, 1874; at Myra, W. Va. She went to her eternal reward April 12, 1934.

She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church when but a small girl, and was a true and faithful member of the church, a source of strength and courage to her preacher husband until her bright spirit passed peacefully into the presence of God. Mrs. Stephens was particularly fond of flowers and had a deep appreciation for the beautiful. She also knew what Jesus meant when he said, "It is more blessed to give than than to receive." It was her joy to share with others.

She was united in marriage to Rev. W. M. Stephens on November 27, 1893. God favored this union with ten children; eight sons and two daughters. One son preceded his mother in death.

Funeral services were conducted in the Dunbar M. E. Church by Rev. Wm. Casto. Words of tribute were given by Dr. J. B. Workman, Rev. E. J. Heller, H. B. Workman and W. R. Moyer. Interment was made in the Grandview Memorial Park, Dunbar, W. Va.

MRS. FRANK S. TOWNSEND

Hattie Alice Sage was born in Cromwell, Conn., February 24, 1859, of New England stock, Jonathan Edwards being one of her ancestors, and died in Buckhannon, W. Va., March 15, 1934. In 1885 she married Rev. Frank S. Townsend, then a member of the New York East Conference, later of the West Virginia Conference, and for almost forty years shared the experience of a Methodist minister. She was faithful in the Church and in her home. The Woman's Missionary Societies especially claimed her interests. She was greatly loved in the churches where she served. As old age approached, her health failed and for several years she had been a great sufferer, but she bore her trials with notable courage and patience. She is survived by her husband, two children, five grandchildren and a sister.

Funeral services were held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Buckhannon, where her husband served as pastor for seven years. Officiating ministers were Claude E. Goodwin, pastor and district superintendent Logan S. Grose.

MRS. R. H. CLARK

Mrs. Allie B. Clark, wife of Rev. R. H. Clark, pastor of the M. E. Church at Kayford, W. Va., passed to her reward in the early morning of October 14, 1933. For many years she was in great suffering, and for two years was confined to her bed most of the time.

She was the eldest child and only daughter of Joseph and Catherine McMillion. She was united in marriage to Rev. R. H. Clark on January 28, 1886, and was a faithful companion and helper down through the years. Of the three sons born to them two survive; Forest of Bluefield, and Joseph of Chesapeake. Ernest the second son died several years ago, at his home in Virginia.

In early life she accepted Christ as her personal Saviour, joined the M. E. Church and remained faithful until the end.

Funeral services were conducted in the Presbyterian Church at Renick by Rev. N. S. Hill, pastor of the M. E. Church at Winona, W. Va. Burial was in the cemetery at Renick, W. Va.

SARAH ELIZABETH (DOUGLAS) ADAMS

Sarah Elizabeth (Douglas) Adams, daughter of William and Sarah (Cornell) Douglas, was born in Pleasants County, Virginia, now West Virginia, December 14, 1855, and departed this life at her home on Latrobe St., Parkersburg, W. Va., June 13, 1934. September 24, 1874, she was married to the Rev. Andrew David Adams, who preceded her in death September 10, 1927. To this union ten children were born, eight of whom survive as follows:

Adolphus A. Adams, of Parkersburg, W. Va.

Mrs. J. R. Pierpoint, of Sapulpa, Oklahoma.

Andrew H. Adams, of Belpre, Ohio.

Dr. William A. Adams, of South Parkersburg, W. Va.

Mrs. E. S. Grimm, of Parkersburg, W. Va.

Mrs. F. G. Barr, of Smithville, W. Va.

Dr. C. T. Adams, of Parkersburg, W. Va.

Russell D. Adams, of Parkersburg, W. Va.

She is survived, also, by 32 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Belle Reed, of St. Marys Ave., Parkersburg, W. Va.

Mrs. Adams was reared in a Presbyterian family but had not united with the Church up to the time of her marriage. After marriage she gave her heart to God and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church on what is now known as the Ellenboro Charge in the West Virginia Conference. From that time until her transfer to the Church Triumphant she lived a consistent and loyal Christian life enduring with her husband all the vicissitudes and hardships of the intinerate ministry. Some idea of the meanng of this to the mother of a large family may be given by a mere recital of the Charges in which they served, all within the bounds of the West Virginia Conference which are as follows: Boone, Birch River, Elk River, Mt. Cove, Summersville, Belleville, Alma, Volcano, Smithville, Friendly, Lauckport, South Parkersburg. After her husband's retirement from the active ministry her membership was transferred to the St. Andrews Church of Parkersburg, W. Va., where surrounded with the love of her children she enjoyed a few years of quiet and peaceful life she so well deserved.

MRS. H. M. LAW

REV. WEBSTER S. WAYMAN

Rev. Webster S. Wayman, a local minister of the West Virginia Conference, died at the home of his brother, Harry Wayman, of New Martinsville, on Easter Sunday morning, April 1, 1934, at the age of 66 years.

His pastorate was begun in Nebraska where he served for four years. He also served in Colorado a few years and then came to West Virginia in which Conference he labored as an evangelist for more than thirty years.

Probably more children knew him than any other man in the State. Members of the Conference will remember him for his faithful and kindly service as Conference postmaster. His work was marked by his spirit of optimism and loyalty.

Funeral services were conducted in the First Methodist Church, New Martinsville, by the pastor, B. T. Trevey, and District Superintendent Dr. James W. Engle, assisted by Rev. S. C. Jones and M. C. Miles. A number of ministers were in attendance at the services. Interment was made in the North View Cemetery.

MRS. ALICE C. DRAKE

Mrs. Alice C. Drake, a veteran Deaconess, was promoted from the church militant to the Church Triumphant Thursday, June 7, 1934, at Ocean Grove, New Jersey, at a good age.

Mrs. Drake was a Deaconess in the West Virginia Conference and had been retired for some years and since that time had resided at Ocean Grove, New Jersey.

She loved music and gave her time and voice to sing the praises of her Master. A member of the family at Bancroft-Taylor Rest Home, Ocean Grove, said of her, "She moved quietly within our home circle, always courteous and gentle. She loved the ocean, going to the shore every pleasant day, even though weak in body. Her last sickness was brief. One could imagine her meeting the Great Pilot as the end came and hear Him say, "Fear Not, I Will Pilot Thee."

Her body was laid to rest at Mt. Prospect Cemetery, Asbury Park, New Jersey, to await the resurrection of the just.

"Servant of God, well done,
Thy glorious warfare past,
The battles fought, the race is run,
And thou art crowned at last.

"Master, in Thy gentle keeping,
Leave me now thy servant sleeping."

The following officers were then elected:

Charles W. Evans	President
Charles H. Hartley	Vice President
Roy Reger	Secretary-Treasurer

A collection, amounting to $26.95, was taken to defray cost of stationery, and for printing the minutes.

On motion of Miss Mary I. Scott, the secretary was directed to send a letter of thanks to Rev. Charles W. Sydnor for the use of St. Lukes' Church for the meetings of this Conference.

The secretary presented a resolution pledging the members of the Lay Conference to do all in their power to defeat the prohibition repeal amendment at the coming election, and after favorable discussion by several members the resolution was unanimously adopted.

A motion was made and carried that Harvey W. Harmer present the resolution for consideration by the United Session and speak on same. The resolution was later adopted by the United Session and is printed in the minutes of that session.

On motion of George A. Serig, the Conference voted to hold an adjourned session at 8:45 A. M. on October 6, 1934.

A committee from the Annual Conference, consisting of Revs. D. C. Pickens, W. M. Shultz, and Homer E. Wark, extended greetings to the Lay Conference, and then escorted the Conference to Thomson M. E. Church, where the ministers and laymen met in the United Session at 10:00 A. M., continuing during the remainder of the day.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1934

In accordance with motion on the previous day, the Lay Conference met in session at 8:45 A. M.

After considerable discussion as to the subjects suitable and advisable for consideration by this Conference, a motion was made and carried that the president, vice president, and secretary be constituted a committee to prepare a definite program for next year's meeting.

A resolution was presented endorsing the movement in favor of better moving pictures, which, on motion, was adopted, and Dr. H. C. Howard was requested to introduce the same resolution in the Annual Conference. The resolution is printed in the minutes of the Annual Conference.

After a general discussion of various matters of interest, the Conference, on motion, adjourned.

ROY REGER, Secretary.

I. CONFERENCE ROLL AND RECORD

IMPORTANT NOTICE—In this Conference Roll and Record the following abbreviations are used: Pr. for Probationer; E. for Effective; Sn. for Supernumerary; Rt. for Retired; Cred. for Admitted on Credentials.

"Non-Annuity Years" include (1) all years "On Trial" in excess of two; (2) Years Withdrawn; (3) Years Located; (4) Years Supernumerary; (5) Years Retired. In the case of Retired Members, the Non-Annuity Years are those charged at the time of Retirement. To find the year of retirement, add to the year of "Admission on Trial" the sum of the Annuity and Non-Annuity Years.

"Annuity Years" are those for which annuity can be allowed by the Conference Board of Stewards. These include the years in the "Effective Relation", which is the number of years from the time of "Admission in Full" to the time of death or final retirement less any Non-Annuity Years." To this, two of the years spent "On Trial" are added to make the "Annuity Years." In the case of persons who come to our Conference by transfer who were admitted in full in a Spring Conference, there may sometimes be allowed an extra "Annuity Year" for the extra half year. Such cases are indicated by a "over the year of admission."

Years "Preached in Other Churches" cannot be counted as "Annuity Years," although due consideration will be given this fact by the Board in the administering of the Necessitous Funds.

Every member of the Conference is urged to examine his record, and should there be any error, write the secretary.

V. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY—MORNING SESSION

Buckhannon, W. Va., September 25, 1935.

OPENING SESSION—The West Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened in its eighty-ninth session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Buckhannon, W. Va., on Wednesday morning, September 25, 1935, at 9:00 o'clock, with

Bishop Adna Wright Leonard, presiding. Hymn No. 560, "And Are We Yet Alive," was sung. After repeating the Apostles' Creed, the Conference was led in prayer by Bishop Leonard. Then followed the singing of Hymn No. 134, "When Gathering Clouds Around I View."

HOLY COMMUNION—The Conference joined in singing Hymn No. 325, "Break Thou the Bread of Life," and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by Bishop Leonard, assisted by the District Superintendents and the Conference Host, S. W. Bell. The service closed with Hymn No. 180, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

ROLL CALL AND ORGANIZATION—The roll was called by the secretary and by common consent became also the Bishop's roll call. One Hundred and Ninety-three members of the Conference and thirty-six supply ministers answered to their names, and were marked present. The secretary named as his assistants, William Casto, Rowland Aspinall and Eugene Modlin and they were elected by the Conference. The treasurer nominated the following to assist him,—W. A. Bebar, E. N. Carlson E. V. Swan, G. W. Thumm, V. C. Cutright, C. C. O'Neill, A. F. Shomo, L. A. Steele, W. R. Moyer, M. W. Sprague and they were duly elected. On nomination by the statistician, B. W. Folsom, J. R. Fitzwater, U. E. Wills, and G. D. Watts were named as his assistants.

STANDING COMMITTEES—The secretary announced the Standing Committees for the Conference and on motion they were approved. (See List).

BAR OF THE CONFERENCE—On motion by S. W. Bell, the Bar of the Conference was fixed to include the first ten rows of pews in the Church auditorium.

CHANGE IN PROGRAM—On motion by Jas. F. Bisgrove, the time and place of the Friday afternoon session was changed to read 1:30 in the Church, instead of 2:00 in Atkinson Chapel.

CABINET NOMINATIONS—The following were recommended by the Cabinet and elected by the Conference to serve as a Committee on General Conference Amendments: S. B. Hart, H. D. Ketcham, D. C. Pickens, J. B. Workman, C. G. Stater, D. Ralph Dunn. Tellers for election of delegates to the General Conference: First Group: H. H. Wagner, B. F. Newman, A. M. Barlow, R. L. Greynolds, Fred S. Bishop, J. E. Scott. Second Group: D. B. Brown, Creed Yoak, C. C. Yates, A. S. Wolfe, Paul Maness, W. E. Anderson. Third Group:

C. H. Backus, U. E. Wills, T. W. Hayes, J. F. Hockenberry, C. C. Lanham, J. R. Bright.

REDUCTION OF DISTRICTS—By common consent the time for considering the report on reduction of districts was left to the presiding officer of the Conference.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT—The composite report of the District Superintendent was read by P. Y. DeBolt and received by the Conference. On motion by J. E. Scott, the secretary was instructed in editing this report to include the temperance section in full.

CHARACTERS PASSED—The names of the ministers were called by districts and their characters passed in open Conference. The names of the District Superintendents were called and their characters passed, each answering in the affirmative to the question concerning pro-rating of ministerial support.

ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE—On motion by J. B. Workman, the taking of the first ballot for election of delegates to the General Conference was made the order of the day for Thursday morning, immediately following the report of the committee on the examination of the Journal.

COMMITTEE ON EXAMINATION OF THE JOURNAL—On nomination by the Cabinet, the following were elected as a committee on Examination of the Journal: J. C. Hoffman, J. E. Hanifan, S. C. Jones.

PRO-RATING COMMITTEE—On nomination of the Cabinet, the following committee on Pro-rating was elected: Ministers: D. C. Pickens, F. S. Bishop, A. F. Shomo, J. E. Scott, Wm. Knox. Laymen: R. B. Nay, D. S. Wass, O. J. Morrison, C. H. Hartley, L. C. Shingleton.

DRAFTS FROM BOARD OF PENSIONS AND RELIEF—Bishop Leonard announced the following drafts from the Board of Pensions and Relief and Chartered fund, respectively, $652.00 and $60.00.

INTRODUCTIONS—S. W. Bell presented to the Conference Rev. G. W. Burdette of the United Brethren Church, Rev. Wm. J. Flint of the Presbyterian Church and Rev. A. D. Arnold of the Methodist Protestant Church of Buckhannon. Judge H. Roy Waugh was presented by Bishop Leonard and he welcomed the Conference on behalf of the city.

IX. REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' REPORT

Dear Bishop Leonard, members of the West Virginia Annual Ministerial and Lay Conferences:

"Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. Blessed be the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comforts who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them who are in trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God."

We, your humble servants, the superintendents, desire your thoughtful consideration while we present to you our annual report. Whatever of success has been achieved, all have been factors in making it so, and wherein we have failed in promoting the work of the Kingdom, we are indeed sorry.

Our beloved Bishop visited our Conference on several occasions during the year, and with each visit brought inspiration and help, not only to the ministry but to the laity as well. The two visits to West Virginia Wesleyan College on "Bishop's Day," and at Commencement, were outstanding events. He delivered strong addresses on each occasion to large and appreciative audiences, and the social contacts with the people were most helpful and uplifting.

There has been more than the usual amount of sickness, the names of those who have been transferred to the church triumphant will be recorded elsewhere in the Conference Journal. Gracious revivals have been held in the several districts; through these conversions and renewals have been reached and 4500 additions to our membership. We emphasize the importance of our pastors' organizing Probationer's Classes and giving personal attention in the training for prospective members.

Building and improvements on property is as follows: a new parsonage, Northview, Clarksburg, $3,000.000, $2400.00 paid; Alexander church, Huntington, is near completion, $4000.00 cash has been paid on the work; Oakland is remodeling and enlarging the church at a cost of $20,000.00, all paid or pledged. Listed improvements have been made at a cost of $19,460. The indebtedness has been reduced $63,330.00. Apportionment for ministerial support is about the same. We expect 90 to 95 per cent will be paid. Conference Benevolences have received favorable attention. World Service will be greatly increased. Stewardship is receiving greater attention, many pastors have introduced the Belmont Covenant Plan, the plan of enlisting tithers for a definite period of time. One church increased its income $805.00 in a period of thirteen weeks over the amount received the previous quarter.

We have only 1869 subscribers to the Christian Advocate. Each pastor should place an Advocate in each family if possible.

West Virginia Wesleyan College and Wesley Foundation will receive full attention in the report on education. The church schools and Epworth League are doing splendid work. The Epworth League Institute, held at the college early in August reports the following enrollment by districts: Buckhannon, 31; Charleston, 55; Huntington, 34; Morgantown, 66; Parkersburg, 30; Wheeling, 130.

The greatest enemy of the youth of our church in particular, and of the world in general, is the liquor problem. With our State in the full control of the liquor interests, beer gardens, beer parlors and State liquor stores are to be seen on every hand. The daily newspapers are filled with liquor advertisements introducing all brands of deadly alcohol to our youth. But thanks to the faithful band of stalwart Christian citizens who would not compromise their convictions, but by their vote have dealt a telling blow to this nefarious business. In local elections at least five towns and five counties have voted King Alcohol out. In fact, every municipality voting went dry by large majorities. Others will do the same thing as they are given opportunity. Counties now scheduled to vote in the next three months are: Roane, Gilmer, Wetzel, Doddridge, Barbour, Preston, and Nicholas. The West Virginia Anti-Saloon League is asking every church and Sunday School on World Temperance Sunday to stress the fight against liquor by means of sermons, special addresses, pageants, plays, young peoples' rallies, etc., placing emphasis on anti-alcohol education including total abstinence pledge, and on our come-back fight to make West Virginia again a dry state. Brethren, the fair name of our State, the lives of our young men and women and the morals of our community are at stake. This is a ringing challenge to us all, to put our very lives upon the altar for service in this great cause. We must not allow this cursed business to continue, but must, with one fell stroke, put it out of business once and forever. We are not worthy the name we bear if we fail in this.

We acknowledge with deep gratitude, the greatness and goodness of God, who has so wonderfully helped us in our undertakings for Him. His eye has watched over us, His hand has guided and His spirit inspired us at all times. The many kindnesses and courtesies of the pastors and people have made our official pathway most delightful, and contributed, in a large way, to the success of the work. We take this means of thanking you all for your loyalty and support in every way. Our year's work is done, our reports have been made and the record is complete. May our hearts be cheered by the Master's voice as He says, "As good servants of Mine, you have done what you could."

"Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy. To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen."

Prepared and read by Philip Y. DeBolt, District Superintendent
Huntington District.

REPORT OF PERMANENT TRUST FUND ASSOCIATION

Members of the West Virginia Conference
Methodist Episcopal Church:

I submit herewith my report on the affairs of the Permanent Trust Fund Association for the Conference Year.

The financial condition of the Association at this time is as follows:

LIABILITIES

NOTE—Kanawha Valley Bank	$ 547.54
NET WORTH	128,121.09

TOTAL	$128,668.63

It should be understood that the non-productive bonds and stocks of the Association which have not been valued in this report have a par or face value of over $180,000.00. Some of these bonds and stocks have substantial market values, but in the absence of definite information as to the value of many of them it is believed that they should not be included in the good assets of the fund.

Bonds sold or exchanged during the year resulted in a net loss of $5,896.83 based upon original cost. The funds received from the sales have been reinvested, however, in securities that are believed to be of a higher productive value and of a sounder nature as to principal. Other sales have been proposed and it is hoped that these can be completed within a short time.

The net income from investments for last year was $5,499.00. For the present conference year it was $7,094.00, checks for which have been handed to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Stewards.

Respectfully submitted,

H. R. HOWELL (Signed)
Executive Secretary-Treasurer.

Charleston, W. Va.
September 24, 1935.

CERTIFICATE OF AUDITOR

I hereby certify that I have examined and checked the records of Harry R. Howell, who is Secretary and Treasurer of the Permanent Trust Fund Association, and find them to be in accord with his report which is being completed as of this date.

All notes, bonds, mortgages and other securities held by the Permanent Trust Fund Association and which are not in custody of the Central Trust Company of Charleston, have been examined by me and found as reported by Mr. Howell, and they are being kept in a safety deposit drawer in the Kanawha Valley Bank.

The individual accounts covered by the report of Secretary-Treasurer Howell, have been examined by the undersigned and I believe them properly and accurately reported by him.

The securities held by the Central Trust Company have been examined only by a check of the report of such Trust Company to the Permanent Trust Fund Association, which covers all bonds, etc., and all transactions by it for the Trust Fund, to September 20, 1935, and I believe it to be accurate and complete.

F. W. PRITT (Signed).

Charleston, W. Va.
September 24, 1935.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

The following accounts have been examined and found correct:
Missionary Accounts of the District Superintendents.

The Permanent Trust Fund.

The Board of Stewards.

Wesley Foundation and Conference Director of Religious Education.

Conference Treasurer's Account

Conference Minutes Fund.

Superintendents' Accounts.

Conference Board of Education.

Conference Entertainment Accounts for three years.

Respectfully submitted,

P. E. CHAMBERLAIN, Auditor.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ANNUAL CONFERENCE MINUTES

Your Committee on Annual Conference Minutes respectfully submits the following report:

I. Treasurer's Report as of Sept. 18, 1935:

Balance on hand at beginning of year	$ 34.02
Receipts for the Year, Apportionments, etc.	652.85
Proceeds of Note (Money Borrowed)	120.94
Total Receipts	$807.81

DISBURSEMENTS:

Total including old Note for $75.00	$713.73
Balance in Treasury	$ 94.08
Outstanding Note of	$125.00
Less Balance in Treasury	94.08
Leaves a deficit of	$ 30.92

II. Recommendations:

- (1) That we set Monday, Noon, Sept. 30, as the closing hour for the receipt of all matters for the Conference Minutes.
- (2) That editing and condensing material for the Minutes be in the hands of the Committee.
- (3) That the action taken one year ago as to the publishing of reports as recorded on page 298 of the 1934 Minutes remain in effect.

III. We recommend that beginning with the close of this Conference year there be an apportionment of $\frac{1}{4}$ of 1% of the Pastor's cash salary, based upon the amount paid by the Charge the previous year and with enough added in each case to make even dollars, laid upon each Pastor and District Superintendent for the Conference Minute Fund. The Committee on Annual Conference Minutes shall make out an apportionment sheet for each District not later than December 1st of each Conference year and furnish the same to the District Supt. The Supt. shall furnish the same to the Pastors by mail or in person. The Committee shall publish each year as many copies of the Minutes as funds in hand will allow and apportion the same to the Pastors having paid the apportionment. Until such time as the funds are sufficient to send free copies to the Retired Ministers and the Widows of Ministers, the price to them shall be 25c per copy. District Supts. and preachers in detached service shall each be apportioned \$2.00 per year. Supernumeraries may order Minutes at the published price of 50c per copy. The Lay Conference shall be requested to raise each year for the Minute Fund such amount as the Committee may advise as the additional cost of including the Minutes of the Lay Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. WELLS, Chairman,
B. T. TREVEY, Treasurer,
W. S. PATTERSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF PRO-RATING COMMITTEE

Your committee on pro-rating wishes to present the following report:

Even though there has been a much larger number of the charges of our Conference pro-rating ministerial support than last year, we regret to announce that there has been a deficit again this year, not only in pastors' salaries but also in the other items of District Superintendents claim, Episcopal Fund, and Conference Claimants Fund.

Therefore we desire to make the following recommendations:

1. That the pastors of the charges where there were deficits this year in the last three items of ministerial support conduct on their charges a campaign of education with reference to the law of our church in these matters. Our people should be taught that the term "Ministerial Support" includes not only the item of pastor's salary but also the claims of the District Superintendents, Bishops, and retired preachers. While the officials of the charge should pro-rate, the pastor bears the responsibility of educating his people.
2. We suggest that the District Superintendents continue to lay increasing emphasis upon this law of pro-rating in their quarterly conferences and district meetings.
3. We feel that our Conference should insist that pastors serving charges where they are supported in whole or in part by other than regular church organizations are morally bound to distribute

WORLD SERVICE

Your Committee on World Service begs to report as follows:

The financial distress of the last five years has sadly affected the benevolent offerings of Methodism. In order that the West Virginia conference may do its part in the recovery of this cause, we suggest the following:

1. That every pastor observe October 20th as "World Service Day", and send his offering to Chicago by October 31st.

2. That every charge be urged to send the full World Service amount on hand monthly, or at least quarterly, and that all benevolent funds be sent in by May 1, 1936, because of the session of General Conference.

3. That the second Sunday in January next be designated as "Save the Sanctuary Sunday", and that the same be designated to approved projects in the conference.

4. We call attention to the World Service literature, and recommend the use of the stereopticon, the movie picture, and the bulletins that may be obtained from the Chicago office.

5. We recommend that we make as our goal for 1936 the sum of $45,000.00 as our share in the $4,500,000 asked by the General Board, and that this sum be allocated to the Districts and in turn to the charges by the Superintendents.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATIONWest Virginia Wesleyan

West Virginia Wesleyan College is starting off another splendid year. Last year marked a healthy increase in the student enrollment and this year the college has the largest enrollment in its history. The Conference has continued its financial support and the giving will exceed that of a year ago. We urge that there shall be no abatement of our loyalty.

We present the following recommendations:

First, that there be no change in the policy of the Conference concerning the fifty cents per member from each church.

Second, it shall be the plan of the Board of Education to permit designated gifts, therefore, we suggest that all the churches use that opportunity to further aid the college. The college needs financial support, but more than financial support it needs the whole-hearted interest of the entire body of Methodism.

We desire to have the Semi-Centennial Celebration to be the greatest educational movement in the history of the college.

Third, the committee recommends the election of the following trustees for the term of four years:

Rev. J. E. Wells, D. D., Buckhannon, W. Va.

Dr. L. G. Beerbower, Kingwood, W. Va.

Mr. Clyde O. Law, 900 Hawley Building, Wheeling, W. Va.

Mr. W. B. Mathews, 1501 Quarrier Street, Charleston, W. Va.

Mrs. Ellis A. Yost, Barr Building, Washington, D. C.

Rev. John E. Hanifan, Moundsville, W. Va.

Rev. T. M. Zumbrunnen, 59 W. Park, Wheeling, W. Va.

Mr. Phil Conley, W. Va. Review, Charleston, W. Va.

Mr. Z. R. Knotts, Montgomery, W. Va.

Dr. Homer E. Wark, Clarksburg, W. Va.

John A. Jackson, Clarksburg, W. Va.

James Hawley, Wheeling, W. Va.

Fifth, the following persons have been elected to Conference Board of Education for a four year term:

Homer E. Wark, U. G. Young, M. S. Collins, Frank B. Trotter, Arthur Lazenby, E. E. Lawson, C. H. Hartley.

CONFERENCE RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

We recommend that the present appropriations for the work of Wesley Foundation be continued and that the Bishop be requested to appoint a suitable director for the work. We recommend that A. H. Rapping be appointed as part-time director of religious education and that the Rally Day offerings be continued and used for this purpose. The following arrangements for the financial support of the projects to be as follows:

First, observance of Rally Day in every local congregation and remit the offerings promptly to the Board of Education in Chicago.

Second, every charge make a liberal and equitable designation of World Service giving to religious education in the Conference.

Third, every charge make a liberal and equitable designation of World Service giving to Wesley Foundation at Morgantown.

Fourth, the Annual Conference benevolence credit assignment for Wesley Foundation shall be computed on the basis of the cash salary paid the pastor for the previous year as follows:

MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK SCHOOL OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING

The success of the Pittsburgh Area School of Ministerial Training resulted from the loyalty and spirit of cooperation manifested by the members of our Conference. The attendance was larger than in past years. We urge cooperation in the planning of apportionment of the charges as published in the minutes for 1933, and that remittances be made not later than July 1, to A. F. Shomo, treasurer.

We suggest the following Conference Committee on graduate work:

S. Charles Jones, P. Y. DeBolt, M. C. Miles, J. R. Bright.

HOMER E. WARK, Chairman.

*Apportionments for 1935-36, as per above action, Conference 1933: $2,500 and above—$6.00; $2,000 and under $2,500—$5.00; $1,500 and under $2,000—$4.00; $1,200 and under $1,500—$3.00; $1,000 and under $1,200—$2.00; $700 and under $1,000—$1.00.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

I.

The menace of war is very real. World conditions are more threatening than they were before the World War. Conditions are such that another world war would be much more destructive than the last one. Great advance has been made in all the arms of warfare. The avenues of communication and propaganda are very much more effective, so that the means of promoting hatred and distrust are more deadly.

II.

We record our profound conviction that war is a deadly sin. In its very nature it is diametrically opposed to a just and loving God and the gospel of good will He has given the world.

Whatever may have been true in other ages and in other conditions, war does not and cannot settle the critical questions arising between nations today. Even more deadly in their results are the treaties of peace following war. This is partially true of the Treaty of Versailles. We therefore call upon all people of whatever name or creed who fear God:

1. To take a resolute stand against war.
2. To insist upon the use of all the means within reach to prevent war, and to strengthen these agencies, and when possible supplement them.
3. To carry on an effective educational movement for old and young, that a resolute public opinion may be formed based upon knowledge and conviction.
4. To constantly lift their hearts and voices to the God of nations Who alone can change the hearts of men.

III.

We heartily commend Secretary Hull for his earnest efforts in behalf of peace. We commend the action of our government in the enactment of the neutrality law and urge constant vigilance in its maintainance.

IV.

Our commission has been mindful of its responsibility during the year. It has sponsored and supported a very helpful conference on world peace, held in the First Church, Charleston, under the direction of the Department of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church. We also issued a letter of earnest protest to the Secretary of the Navy against the naval maneuvers in the mid-Pacific.

We recommend that a permanent commission of four ministers and four laymen be appointed to carry on the work of promoting peace.

ROBERT BAGNELL,
C. G. STATER,
D. C. PICKENS,
H. E. MODLIN.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

The Methodist Episcopal Church in West Virginia, in line with the declaration of world-wide Methodism, re-states and re-emphasizes her traditional convictions as regards the liquor problem, namely that legalizing it does not justify it by any standard of Christian-morals, economics, or social philosophy. We hold it to be an enemy of mankind, that there is but one way to deal with it and that is to completely eradicate the traffic.

We deplore the tremendous silence from official Washington on the new liquor problems that have arisen and we deplore the failure of the administration of our federal government to live up to former pledges to protect the rights of dry territory and to prevent the return of the saloon. We also denounce the lack of regulation of the malicious and misleading liquor and beer advertising.

We urge every pastor in every church to participate in every issue where temperance may be at stake. We urge the local churches to cooperate in temperance educational campaigns, the creation in every local church of a temperance committee and the observance of World Temperance Sunday, October 27.

We heartily endorse the leadership and activities of the West Virginia Anti-Saloon League, our own Board of Temperance and the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and urge the pastors of the Conference to open the doors of their churches to the representatives of these organizations.

H. H. WAGNER, Chairman.

TENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY

The Tenth Annual Session of the Western Virginia Conference: 1857

This concludes the series of resumes by this Committee of the Western Virginia Annual Conferences for which minutes were never printed. Included are the sessions of 1848, 1849, 1850, 1851, 1852, 1853 and 1857. The minutes were printed for 1854, 1855, 1856 and each year since 1857.

The tenth annual session (1857) was held at Moundsville, or Elizabethtown as it appeared in the appointments, April 16-20, 1857. The gifted Bishop Matthew Simpson presided. S. R. Dawson was secretary and S. Steele, assistant.

Admitted on trial: James W. W. Bolton, Aaron Bower, John Cook, Harrison Hagans, Thomas B. Hughes, Charles King, F. H. J. King, John B. Pinchen, Henry D. Rice, Geo. W. Richmond, Wm. C. Wilson, James A. Young.

(Thomas B. Hughes who was admitted on trial became the father of two Bishops, Edwin Holt Hughes and Matthew Simpson Hughes, named for the Bishop who presided when the father was admitted).

Remaining on trial: Franklin Ball, W. R. Carroll, L. H. Dorsey, A. W. Gregg, Robert Hager, T. C. Hatfield, Wm. H. Shaw.

Admitted in full connection: Marcellos Allen, A. R. Crislip, Samuel Jones, Vanlinden Sandford, D. O. Stuart, Joseph H. Temple, Paul Vendervort. All these were ordained deacons except Samuel Jones.

Admitted elders: Wm. R. Howe, Richard Northcraft, Thomas H. Trainer.

The Conference sermon was preached by James Drummond, which was ordered to be printed and sold for the benefit of widows and orphans "who are claimants."

Five invitations were extended for the place of holding the next session. Charleston was selected and the date fixed was April 15, 1858.

A committee was appointed to consider the propriety of forming "A Preacher's Aid Society." Two laymen, C. D. Hubbard and W. T. Willy were appointed. Several unpaid accounts were referred to the presiding elders for collection.

By formal motion the Conference decided to ask an increase in its missionary receipts to $2,800.00.

The amounts recommended to the several appointments to be helped amounted to $3,000.00. A foot note read, "Do not publish".

The Western Virginia Conference became a co-patron, with the Pittsburgh and Erie Conferences, of Allegheny College. Patronage of North Western Virginia Academy at Clarksburg and the Fairmont Male and Female Seminary was vouchsafed in favorable reports and "education pressed."

A contribution of $100.46 was made to the American Bible Society but participation in promoting a revised Bible was disavowed. "The establishment of a paper somewhere within our bounds at an early a date as practicable" was recommended. A committee was raised to report the estimated cost thereof to the next annual session. Each pastor was requested to preach a sermon on temperance at each of his appointments.

Organization of Sunday Schools were urged "wherever ten children can be collected for that purpose". Sale of tracts was recommended to counteract "novels and other demoralizing productions."

A collection was taken to pay the cost of printing the minutes. A resolution of thanks for Moundsville hospitality was passed.

Statistics for the year were not given.

Respectfully submitted,

The Conference Committee on Methodist History,

By Wm. Burdette Mathews, Chairman.

MINUTES OF CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD MEETING

Buckhannon, West Virginia, September 27, 1935

The West Virginia Conference Deaconess Board met for their regular meeting at the First M. E. Church at 1 o'clock. The president H. C. Howard presiding. The meeting opened with prayer by Miss Nellie Stevens. The roll was called and the following members were present: H. C. Howard, J. F. Bisgrove, R. O. Phillips, Rena M. Crawford, Nellie Stevens, Gregory Bleakley, Alice McCurry, Beatrice Greene, Mary Lockhart.

The minutes were read and approved. On motion of Rev. Bleakley the same officers and committees were elected for another year. The standing of each Deaconess of the Conference was approved. The Secretary was requested to write for the transfer of Anna Zenkovich, a probationer of the Philadelphia Conference. Miss Zenkovich was received as a probationer of the second year.

Miss Julia Flanagan is working in the Deaconess Home, Pittsburgh, Pa., and when the request comes for her transfer it is to be granted by the secretary.

On motion of Miss McCurry and seconded by R. O. Phillips, Miss Beatrice Greene and Miss Alta Ice were granted Deaconess license and were to be consecrated as Deaconesses at the First M. E. Church, Buckhannon, West Virginia, Sunday, September 29, 1935, by Bishop A. D. Leonard.

On motion of Dr. Bisgrove and seconded by R. O. Phillips, Miss Sophia Fetzter was readmitted as a Deaconess. Miss Fetzter was given an honorable discharge from the Deaconess work in September, 1925, by the Conference Deaconess Board of the Detroit Conference, this discharge was signed by Dr. Geo. Nixon, president and Jennie Eddington, secretary of that Conference Deaconess Board.

LaDonna Bogardus and Bertha McNeal were granted leave of absence to attend school.

The appointment of the Deaconesses and Probationers of the Conference were read and approved.

The meeting adjourned.

Secretary.

INVESTMENT — IN MEN — THE MINISTER

There may be a beautiful church building, with a powerful and most beautiful organ, but these avail but little until the voice of the preacher is heard. He may be an Amos with a prophecy of Righteousness in the name of the Lord. He may be beseeching His people to present their lives a living sacrifice, "holy acceptable unto God." He may be consoling the bereaved. But he is ever lifting up the Christ. He is the most necessary man in your community.

Mr. H. C. Berger, with the Aetna Life Insurance Company, writes, "All the success of modern civilization can be attributed to the sacrificial services of the preachers of the Gospel. For this reason I am heartily in favor of a fund which will reasonably supply the needs of the retired ministers and encourage high-grade young men to enter the Ministry."

ANNUITY BONDS OR GUARANTEED LIFE INCOME BONDS

A Life Annuity Bond of the Permanent Trust Fund Association of the West Virginia Conference provides that upon the payment of a sum of money to the said Fund, the Permanent Fund agrees to pay the Annuitant certain amounts during his life. This Contract may be made to cover two lives. For example: If a man, 70 years of age, should purchase a bond for $5,000.00, the fund would pay him 7 per cent or $350.00 annually during his life in semi-annual installments of $175.00 each. At his death payments cease. When the absence of income and inheritance tax are considered, this makes a safe and efficient provision for old age income and avoids the hazard of bad investments.

Permanent Trust Fund Bonds are the BEST INVESTMENTS today because they are perfectly safe investments, because they are not taxable, because the older the person is when the bond is purchased the larger the annuity is paid, because Annuity Bonds may be purchased in any amount, and because Annuity is paid Semi-annually.

A SELF INVESTMENT

The Permanent Trust Fund of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church sells a safe and very attractive Life Income Bond which appeals especially to persons of middle age, or older, who desire to aid the old preachers of said conference and administer their own bounty and yet feel that they cannot afford to do without such income as their contemplated investment would bring during their life time. The Permanent Trust Fund Bonds (issued in amounts of $100.00 and upwards) pays a guaranteed life income, Annually or Semi-annually as desired based on age of the annuitant at the time of purchasing the Bond, beginning at 5 per cent at the age of Fifty years, the annuity increases one-half of one per cent with each half decade. So that if one 75 years old purchase such bond his annuity would be seven and one-half per cent.

It is understood that the principal sum paid for the bond becomes at once the property of the Permanent Trust Fund Association of said conference, and after the death of the annuitant the income from the above shall be devoted to the support of the Retired Ministers, their widows and orphans of the West Virginia Conference.

For particulars address as below.

SUGGESTED FORM OF WILL

I give, devise and bequeath to the Permanent Trust Fund of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a corporation created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of West Virginia for the benefit of the retired ministers of said conference (the sum of $.....) and the receipt of the Treasurer or Executive Secretary of said association shall be full and sufficient discharge of my executor for the same.

* If a devise of real estate is made a full and correct description should be given following the words "For the Benefit of the retired ministers of said conference."

Address,
REV. S. B. HART,
Huntington, W. Va.

REV. CLAUDE EARL GOODWIN, A.B., S.T.B., D.D.

June 11, 1935 the sweet singer of the West Virginia Conference was promoted to the angel choir of the Church Triumphant in the City of God. For more than a quarter of a century in many Conferences, Institutes, and College Board meetings, Bishops and leaders have been accustomed to say, "Brother Goodwin, lead us in a hymn." And how that full, rich voice lifted us to the throne of grace! Best of all he lived as sweetly as he sang.

Dr. Goodwin was born Aug. 30, 1876 at Benwood, W. Va., graduated from West Virginia Conference Seminary, 1903, from West Virginia Wesleyan College, 1906, from Boston University School of Theology, 1910, joined our Conference in 1906, became a full member in 1910, ordained Elder in 1912 and served Benwood, Mannington, Fairmont First Church, Seventh Avenue-Huntington, First Church-Huntington, Buckhannon First Church, and Moundsville First Church.

For sixteen years, Brother Goodwin was Treasurer of the Board of Stewards, Dean of the Epworth League Institute seven years, trustee of Wesleyan College sixteen years, a Delegate to the General Conference in 1928, Dean of the Pittsburgh Area Training School at the time of his death. He was never known to be neglectful of any trust.

On June 7th, 1908 he was married to Miss Barta Marie Vail of Ripley, W. Va. To this union two sons were born: Robert Booth and Claude Elbert. The mother passed to her heavenly reward March 3, 1911. Nov. 28, 1912 he was married to Miss Nancy Ann Loar of Monongalia County. To them were born the following children: David Livingstone, Olin Mansell, George Dolliver, Claude Earl, Jr., Nancy Rebecca, William Lewis and Esther Grace who preceded her father in death Dec. 20, 1930.

Claude Earl Goodwin, Christian gentleman, true friend, tender husband and father, good minister of Jesus Christ, we drop an evergreen. Thou shalt live in our hearts.

WILLIAM MAXWELL SHULTZ

The Rev. Wm. Maxwell Shultz, son of Rev. Franklin J. Shultz, was born February 13th, 1867 in Pennsylvania and died in his home in Charleston, W. Va., November 26th, 1934. He was united in marriage April 12th, 1888 to Miss Minnie Ann Seiler who survives him.

To this union two sons, John Rollin and Stanley Jennings, were born; the former died some two years ago and the latter lives in Charleston.

Dr. Shultz had 3 brothers who were ministers one of whom preceded him to the Heavenly Home.

Dr. Shultz was admitted on trial in the W. Va. Conference in 1898 and continued in effective relation until his death. He was pastor of the following charges: Horton and Whitmer, Albrightsville, Harrisville, Seventh Ave.-Huntington, Sistersville, Zane St.-Wheeling, Oakland, Md., Central Church-Charleston, St. Andrews-Parkersburg, Superintendent of Morgantown district six years and Executive Secretary of the Permanent Trust Fund of the W. Va. conference four years. He was a member of the General conference 1932, and was active in all the work of the conference. He was a man of unusual business sagacity and was a builder of churches and looked well after every interest of the church he served. He was widely known throughout the state and had many friends both among the ministers and the laymen.

He was buried from the Central Methodist church in Charleston, the pastor, Dr. J. B. Workman having charge of the service, assisted by Drs. W. B. King, J. E. Scott, J. C. Buckley, and P. Y. DeBolt of the W. Va. conference and by Dr. Frank Brown, pastor of Bream Memorial Presbyterian Church, Charleston, with some thirty members of the conference present.

RICHARD D. HALL

Richard D. Hall, was born in Coalton, Boyd County, Kentucky, January 28, 1872. As a young man he taught school, but an early interest in church work led him to enter the ministry. He joined the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1902, was ordained Deacon at Grafton in 1904, by Bishop Fowler, and graduated from the Conference Course, and ordained Elder at Huntington, in 1907, by Bishop Spellmeyer.

He was pastor of Alexander Church, Huntington, and was in the active ministry for thirty-two years, enjoying the distinction of never having missed a Sunday from his pulpit, until his last illness.

He was obliged to give up his pastorate in the Walnut Hills Church, a month before his death. From the very first, he was seriously ill, and his condition reached the critical stage on Thursday, November 15th, and he was taken to King's Daughters Hospital, in Ashland, Kentucky, where he lingered in intense suffering until on Sunday morning, November 18th, the dear Lord said, "It is enough, come up higher," and he slipped peacefully away, surrounded by all the members of his family and some near friends.

He was married to Miss Effie Leah Bayes, of Glenwood, Kentucky, March 22, 1898.

Brother Hall's first pastorate was on the Earl Circuit, which consisted of several appointments. Subsequently he filled pastorates at Summersville, Ronceverte, Wadestown, Fairview, Stealey Heights Clarksburg, Williamstown, Spencer and Huntington. He was pastor of two Huntington churches at different intervals; the Jefferson Avenue church from 1925 to 1929, and the Alexander church from 1933, until his death.

Funeral services were conducted in First Methodist Episcopal Church, Huntington, by the pastor, Dr. C. G. Stater. Dr. Philip Y. DeBolt, district superintendent gave the funeral address, and Dr. John C. Buckley, superintendent of Charleston District, a life-long personal friend gave a beautiful eulogy, upon the life of this man of God. Interment was made in Rose Hill cemetery in Ashland, Kentucky. Thus another noble son of our Conference has gone to join the great Conference on high.

REV. CHARLES H. MILLER

Rev. Charles Henry Miller was born March 3, 1870, at Seymour, Ind., and died at Huntingburg, Ind., Feb. 10, 1935.

He was the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Louis Miller. His father was a minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty-six years.

Rev. Charles H. Miller was an effective minister for forty-four years. During his ministry he preached in Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia filling most acceptably some of the best appointments in the Central German Conference. He was serving his second term in Central Church, Wheeling, W. Va. when in January, 1934, he suffered an attack of influenza. This was followed by a severe heart attack in April from which he never fully recovered.

At the last session of the West Virginia Annual Conference he took the superannuated relation and moved to Huntingburg, Indiana, where he died.

On September 28, 1896 he was married to Miss Sophia Buell of Tell City, Ind. Mrs. Miller and son, Dr. Ralph Miller, and daughter, Mrs. H. C. Rentepohler survive him.

Rev. and Mrs. Miller were highly esteemed and greatly loved throughout their ministry.

Funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Huntingburg, Feb. 12, 1935.

REV. C. E. LEATHERBY

Rev. C. E. Leatherby was born in London, England, March 6, 1864, and passed to his heavenly reward from his home in Moundsville, W. Va., June 26, 1935.

In his youth he served an apprenticeship in the British Navy and later joined the British Merchant Marine. He crossed the Atlantic eleven times. He came to America to live in 1880. He was converted October 6, 1881, in a revival meeting held in Caroline Street Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Feeling his call to the ministry he made preparation for the same by attending Pennington Seminary, Wright's University, and Centenary Biblical Institute. Rev. Leatherby began his ministry as a junior preacher on the Bentley Springs Circuit in the Baltimore Conference. In the fall of 1888 he joined the West Virginia Conference, and with the exception of two years, on account of impaired health, he served the Church in W. Va. with the utmost sincerity and fidelity until 1926 when he retired. Among the important charges served by Bro. Leatherby are Fulton-Greggs, Moundsville Circuit, Frenchton, Newburg, Ravenswood, Dallas, Wesley Memorial, Davis, Williamstown, Glen Dale, Wadestown, Farmington.

Brother Leatherby always conducted himself as a dignified Ambassador of Jesus Christ. February 7, 1894, he was married to Miss Carrie Rulong, Moundsville, W. Va., who always rendered faithful and efficient help to her husband in his work. Surviving are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Barder of Mannington, W. Va., Miss Mabel V. Leatherby at home, and a son William H. at home, two grandchildren, Charles E. and John Walter Barder. A son, A. Foster, preceded him in death in 1924. The funeral services were in charge of the district superintendent, Dr. James W. Engle, assisted by Dr. L. E. Ressegger and Dr. J. C. Hoffman.

EDWARD PORTER IDLEMAN

Edward Porter Idleman was born September 15, 1864 near Mt. Storm, W. Va., and died February 2, 1935 at Terra Alta, W. Va., aged seventy. He was the son of Jacob and Sophia Idleman. Death came as the result of a fall at his home more than three weeks previously. The fall had injured his hip and resulted in unexpected complications.

Brother Idleman entered the ministry at the age of 28 and served 21 years at Cranesville, Deer Park, Grantsville, Md., Bruceton, Rowlesburg, Newburg, Gormanian and Albright. At the last place he suffered an illness of typhoid which left him an invalid for the remaining twenty years of his life. At the time of his death he was completing the twenty-ninth time of reading the Bible through.

Survivors are his widow, Florida Freeman Idleman; one son, Paul Idleman; four brothers, John Idleman, living near Parkersburg, James and Frank Idleman of Elk Garden, David Idleman of Emoryville; and one sister, Mrs. Charity Neville of Williamstown, W. Va. Two sons, Core and Harry preceded him in death.

Funeral services were conducted at our Terra Alta Church by Asa S. Wolfe, Archibald Moore and Ithra M. Ward. Burial also was at Terra Alta.

R. H. CLARK

Remus Henry Clark was born August 8, 1864, at Hillsboro, Pocahontas County, West Virginia; the son of Henry N. and Mary Esther Loveridge Clark. He died in Grafton, West Virginia, November 16, 1934, from injuries sustained in a railway crossing accident the same date.

January 28, 1886, he married Miss Alice B. McMillion, of Loveridge, West Virginia. To this union were born three sons: Forrest P. Clark, of Bluefield, West Virginia, and Joseph N. Clark, of Chesapeake, West Virginia survive. Ernest M. Clark, the second son, and who resided at Columbia, Va., died in 1930. Two brothers survive: Romey C. Clark, of Jacox, West Virginia, and Ryce L. Clark, of New Haven, Connecticut.

His first wife died in 1933, and May 15, 1934, he married Miss Maudie L. McMillion, of Charleston, West Virginia, who also sustained fatal injuries in the same accident and died on the same date as the husband.

He attended academies at Hillsboro, W. Va., and Lexington, Va., and studied under a Doctor Cullis in Boston, Massachusetts, and I feel sure the work in Boston was along religious and theological lines, but I can give no details.

He was licensed to preach in 1885, received on trial in 1890, and into full connection in 1892. This was all in the Virginia Conference, which at that time included at least the eastern West Virginia counties.

All of his service was in Virginia and West Virginia. He was Presiding Elder (Greenbrier District?) six years, 1900 to 1905, inclusive. In his latter years he served charges at Eccles, Kincaid, Thomas, Parsons, Sharon, Chelyan, and Kayford, all in West Virginia, before his last charge at Newburg, W. Va.

Earlier charges were in Pocahontas and Monroe Counties, W.

Va., and Augusta and Highland Counties, Va.

THOMAS MORGAN McCARTY

The Rev. Thomas Morgan McCarty died Friday, Nov. 23rd, at the Mary Fletcher Hospital in Burlington, Vermont. Funeral services were conducted at 2 P. M., Monday, Nov. 26, in Cabot, Vermont. The burial followed in the Cabot Cemetery.

He was an active member of the West Virginia conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church from 1904 to 1930 at which time ill health forced retirement. From 1930 to 1931 he resided in Columbus, Ohio, and from 1931 to 1933 he lived in Fairmont, West Va. In the fall of 1933 he moved to Plainfield, Vermont where he lived until he departed this life.

During his ministry he served thirteen appointments, Bomont Charleston circuit, Spencer circuit; Ripley, Osbornes Mills, Wallback, Ellenboro, Pullman, Meadville, Cranesville, Albright, Meadowdale and Corinth.

He was born on Bruffey's Creek in Pocahontas county, Sept. 9, 1870. He was the son of Samuel A. McCarty and Elizabeth Anderson McCarty. He married Ruth Ann Eagle, daughter of Charles and Elizabeth Eagle of Hills Creek, Sept. 14, 1892. To this union was born seven sons and four daughters: Bennett S., of Terra Alta; Emerson E., of Clendenin; Vincent L., Veterans Auxiliary, Chillicothe, Ohio; Garrett L., Columbus, O.; Justin S., and Charles E., of Plainfield, Vt., and Samuel M., of Fairmont. Mrs. Frank C. Taylor of Akron, O.; Mrs. R. Dale White, Wilsonburg, and Miss Martha McCarty of Plainfield, Vermont, and Ruby Prudence, who died in infancy.

He had three brothers and two sisters, Columbus, deceased; Samuel, Lower Cabot, Vt., James, North Calais, Vt., Mrs. Susie Nottingham, who died in 1906, and Mrs. Frank (Margaret) Thompson, of East Montpelier, Vt., and sixteen grandchildren.

Members of the Masonic order acted as pallbearers.

ANTOINETTE AUGUSTA GRAHAM

Antoinette Augusta Graham was born in Kanawha County, W. Va., on March 20, 1860. She was the daughter of George W. and Rebecca Kendal Hill. She was married to the Rev. C. B. Graham in 1879 and for thirty-six years shared with him the privileges and responsibilities of the Methodist Ministry. Since the retirement of her husband she has lived in Charleston and was a member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Graham departed this life on July 17, 1935. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Robert Bagnell, at her late residence on July 19th, and interment took place in Spring Hill Cemetery.

Converted in early life, she maintained a fine Christian experience throughout her long life and manifested a deep and constant interest in the things of the Kingdom.

MRS. SADIE CECILIA SHEA

Funeral services for Mrs. Sadie Cecilia Shea, wife of Rev. T. E. Shea of Brave, Pa., were held in the Brave Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday afternoon, February 17 with Rev. John L. Wolfe officiating. The music was rendered by a choir composed of members of the four choirs of the Brave charge. They sang, "Some Day He Will Make It Plain to Me," "Does Jesus Care" and "Sunrise." Interment was made in the Phillips Cemetery.

The deceased is survived by her father, G. W. Decker, her husband, Rev. T. E. Shea and the following children: Margaret, James, Loretta and Charles all at home; and three children by a former marriage: George Whiteley of Allison; Mrs. Alice Harris of Brave; Mrs. Lorine Petty of Dawes; two brothers, Harry and Earl Decker of Fayetteville, W. Va.

Sister Shea was a great helpmate to her husband in the ministry, a woman of great faith, consecrated to her Lord in her living, deeply interested in the spiritual welfare of the community. When she went to the Greene County Memorial Hospital where she died one week later after an operation, she made her husband promise that no matter what happened nothing must interfere with the revival services that they had planned and prepared for during the past three months.

Our keenest sympathy goes out to Brother Shea in his hour of deep bereavement. As he sits in this shadow may he remember the words of the Master when he said, "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee."

MRS. FOSTER L. JONES

Saturday evening, April 27, as the sun was setting in the west, Mrs. Mildred (West) Jones, the beautiful and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. West slipped peacefully away to be with Jesus. She died at the Morgantown City Hospital where she had suffered patiently for almost a week.

After a brief prayer at the home of her parents, her body was taken to the Westover Methodist Episcopal Church, her early church home, where the last rites were conducted. The service was in charge of the pastor, Reverend Bernard Gibbs, and the District Superintendent, Rev. John L. Wolfe.

She was united in marriage to Reverend Foster L. Jones, July 10, 1927, and had the privilege of accompanying him to three charges, Halleck, Sabra, and Pruntytown. Although she was only eight days passed her twenty-fifth birthday, she was a real queen of the parsonage and she was beloved by all who knew her, which was only a natural return for the high regard she held for everybody.

With her going away there passed from home and friends one of the most beautiful Christian characters it has been our privilege to meet. The last service she was permitted to attend was the early Sunrise Easter service at Pruntytown, in memory of our risen Lord whom she loved and worshipped so devoutly. That afternoon she took suddenly ill and was rushed to the hospital where all was done that was humanly possible, but before another Sabbath Day came she had the great privilege of meeting her Risen Lord face to face.

LILLIE McDUFFY HEIRONIMUS

Lillie McDuffy Heironimus was born at Sangersville, Virginia, January 23, 1867, and died at Mercer, Pennsylvania, July 31, 1935, aged 68. She was the daughter of John Marshall and Mary Elizabeth (Landes) Marshall. She first married Charles Hogsett and later Rev. Homer Templar Heironimus. The latter marriage was July 5, 1905, Brother Heironimus was then serving Staunton, Virginia. They served together in the evangelistic field twenty years and at Chesapeake and Powellton three years. Mrs. Heironimus was licensed a Local Preacher in the Charleston District when Ernest J. Westfall was Superintendent.

There were two children, Anne Elizabeth and James Templar. The former is the wife of Dr. Elmer C. Lewis, Pastor of our Church at Bowmansville, New York; the second child died in infancy.

Death came to Mrs. Heironimus as the result of an automobile accident on the Perry Highway near Mercer, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Heironimus is survived by her husband and daughter; also by one brother and four sisters: Mr. E. E. Marshall, Lynchburg, Va., Miss Vertie Marshall, Charleston, W. Va., Mrs. Estes Myers, Clifton Forge, Va., Mrs. Olive Atkins, East Redford, Va., and Mrs. Clifton Hogan, Petersburg, Va.

Burial was at Wilmore, Kentucky where Brother and Sister Heironimus had made their home for several years.

The following officers were then elected:

Charles W. Evans President

Charles H. Hartley Vice-President

Roy Reger Secretary-Treasurer

A collection, amounting to $53.15, was taken for defrayal of cost of stationery, and of printing minutes.

The following resolution, introduced by Charles H. Hartley, was unanimously adopted:

"To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress Assembled:

Be it resolved that we, the West Virginia Lay Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, do hereby endorse the proposed constitutional amendment to prohibit sectarian appropriations, and urge its immediate passage."

A motion was made and carried that the conference proceed at once to ballot for delegates to General Conference, and that other business be transacted while the tellers count the ballots.

By another motion duly carried it was ordered that nominating speeches be limited to one minute each, and that the names of the candidates be written in alphabetical order on the blackboard on the rostrum.

The following were thereupon placed in nomination:

W. F. Dalzell	Clyde O. Law
H. R. DeBussey	Sampson N. Miller
Harry Elbin	Roy Reger
Charles W. Evans	Frank B. Trotter
Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer	H. Roy Waugh
Charles H. Hartley	Frank S. White

The following tellers were appointed by the president:

C. B. Whetsell	J. C. Hupp
Frank W. Pritt	Julia N. James
Charles Garland	C. T. Boggess

After taking the first ballot a motion was made and carried to recess until 1:00 o'clock P. M., in order to attend the united session at 10:00 o'clock A. M. in the chapel of West Virginia Wesleyan College.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Upon reconvening, the tellers reported the first ballot, as follows:

Clyde O. Law	110	Charles H. Hartley	41
Roy Reger	88	H. R. DeBussey	33
Charles W. Evans	68	W. F. Dalzell	31
H. Roy Waugh	67	Frank B. Trotter	27
Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer	64	Frank S. White	26
Harry Elbin	42	Sampson N. Miller	15

Total number of votes cast, 153; necessary for a choice, 77.

Clyde O. Law and Roy Reger each having received a majority of all the votes cast, were declared elected, and a second ballot was ordered.

A motion was made and carried that if the second ballot resulted in no election, the four having the lowest number of votes be dropped from the list of candidates.

The report of the tellers on the second ballot was as follows:

H. Roy Waugh	60	Harry Elbin	16
Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer	50	Sampson N. Miller	13
Charles W. Evans	48	Frank B. Trotter	12
H. R. DeBussey	20	W. F. Dalzell	12
Charles H. Hartley	18	Frank S. White	9

Total number of votes cast, 129; necessary for a choice, 65.

No candidate having received a majority, a third ballot was ordered, the names of Sampson N. Miller, Frank B. Trotter, W. F. Dalzell, and Frank S. White being dropped as provided in the previous motion.

Amendments submitted by the Rock River Conference, the Northwest Indiana Conference, and the West Wisconsin Conference coming up for action, the conference voted upon the following proposed amendments, as follows:

Rock River Conference Amendment No. 1	112 ayes	1 no
N. W. Indiana Conference Amendment No. 1	113 ayes	1 no
N. W. Indiana Conference Amendment No. 2	70 ayes	22 noes

Upon motion duly carried, further consideration of the other amendments submitted was indefinitely postponed, and the delegates to General Conference were requested to consider same carefully before the convening of General Conference.

At the request of Bishop Leonard, the conference then recessed until 5:00 o'clock P. M., in order to meet again in united session with the Annual Conference.

Upon reconvening, the tellers announced the result of the third ballot as follows:

H. Roy Waugh	88	Charles H. Hartley	23
Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer...	81	H. R. DeBussey	17
Charles W. Evans.....	53	Harry Elbin	14

Total number of votes cast, 138; necessary for a choice, 70.

Thereupon H. Roy Waugh and Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer, each having received a majority, were declared duly elected.

A motion was made and carried that the two candidates receiving the next highest number of votes after those elected as delegates be chosen as reserve delegates. In accordance with said motion, Charles W. Evans and Charles H. Hartley were declared duly elected as reserve delegates.

On motion by W. Foss Curtis, it was ordered that a program committee of five, consisting of the officers of the conference and two others to be selected by the president, be appointed to confer with the program committee of the Annual Conference in arranging a program for the next conference.

A motion was made that the Annual Conference be notified that it is the sense of the Lay Conference that the number of districts be not changed at this time.

After considerable discussion, and after a number of amendments were proposed and withdrawn, the original motion was carried.

Upon motion duly made and carried, it was ordered that a committee of three be appointed to make a study as to the number of districts advisable in this conference, and to report their recommendations to the next lay conference.

A motion was made and carried that a letter of thanks be sent to the Baptist pastor and congregation for the use of their church for the sessions of this conference.

On motion, the Lay Conference adjourned.

The student in BOSTON UNIVERSITY is more than simply "another college student".

He is a student in the largest institution of higher learning in New England, and in one of the greatest universities in the world, measured in terms of scholarly worth, serviceableness and product.

He has the opportunity of fellowship with the best of his contemporaries.

He studies under professors who have received advanced degrees from some two hundred colleges and universities in Europe and America, writers of books used in many other institutions, and distinguished scholars, more than eighty of whom are listed in "Who's Who in America".

His study at the center of Boston keeps him close to real life and gives him also the cultural values of "The Athens of America" with its rich treasures in art, its vast library facilities, its numerous historic and patriotic shrines, its homes and haunts of poets and philosophers.

He enters, upon graduation, into fellowship with as distinguished group of alumni as can be found anywhere.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY has five undergraduate Colleges and six graduate Schools.

ALLEGHENY COLLEGE

"Do not surrender the faith you have brought with you until you are quite certain you have found a stronger and finer one."

This sentence from the President's message to incoming freshmen epitomizes the attitude of Allegheny College toward the problem of religious growth through education. Consistently since its founding in 1815 it has combined respect for learning with reverence for eternal values.
